It is always appropriate to praise God with all our hearts, minds and souls. Here I will add "praise God with our voices", for during Mass we are called upon to sing with the Cantor and/or the Choir with the voice God gave us. We cannot all sing with great voices, but the wonder of congregational singing is that there is a blend, and those with the best voices help the others in their efforts. I implore you to never sit back and let the others sing. Give it all you've got! There are ample times for you to sing during Mass: the Hymns, the various Mass Parts, as well as the Mystery of Faith, the Great Amen, and sometimes the Our Father. You also have the opportunity to meditate on the words and music of a Solo or a Choir Anthem. These are the unique offerings of our Cantors, Soloists, and Choir. So many folks have told me how spiritually uplifting these moments are. We hope that they comfort you in times of sorrow or stress and uplift you during happy times.

If you enjoy singing, please consider joining the Holy Cross Choir. Do not be intimidated by our wonderful Choir. Stop up to the loft after any Mass or call 315-446-0473 x38 for information. Yours may be just the voice we need!

Feature of the week: The New Testament

This Revised Standard Version Second Catholic Edition New Testament brings together the study tools developed by renowned Bible teachers Dr. Scott Hahn and Curtis Mitch, presenting the written Word of God in a highly readable, accurate translation.

With illuminating study notes, topical essays and thorough indices this New Testament Bible is excellent for personal and group study. The RSV-2CE is the only Bible translation that uses standard English and is in conformity with the Church's translation guidelines found in the Vatican document, Liturgiam Authenticam.

A Family Perspective

The man in today's gospel "sold all he had" for the treasure he found. Family relationships are "treasures" and demand our total personal investment. Invest yourself in the "treasure" of your family.
