The readings today have to do with our thirsting for The Lord. The reading from Jeremiah is of course pessimistic in nature as he feels that the Lord duped him and the word of the Lord has brought him “derision and reproach all the day”. Following is the Responsorial Psalm which cheers things up as the Psalmist gazes toward the Lord in the sanctuary while the final verses are so comforting and uplifting and they bear repeated readings after Mass,

In the Offertory Hymn “Only This I Want” echoes the Gospel reading which requires no explanation. And the praise hymns are always appropriate during this or any time of year.

Once again, if anyone wishes to join the Choir which begins on September 17 at 11:30 Mass, Call 315-446-0473 x38 or stop up to the Choirloft after any Mass. Also, if you have a child, 1st grade through 6th grade who enjoys singing, please consider the Children’s Choir which sings at the 9:00 Mass the first Sunday of each month. This year their first Mass is on Sunday, October 1st at the 9:00 Mass. They sing also at the Christmas Eve Children’s Mass. We have refreshments after some rehearsals and an ice cream social at the end of the year. I hope you consider this for your child.

Exploring God's Word

From the beginning, Christians gathered in small groups to better understand the teachings of Jesus, and to support each other in following the light of His truth.

Sometimes, we're hesitant about joining a Bible Study. Perhaps we're worried it will be boring or not relevant to our real life. Sometimes we lack confidence, worrying that we don't have enough depth of knowledge.

Prayer, study, small - group faith sharing overcomes these concerns. Come and join in with a group of fellow believers who experienced these similar concerns, but are now loving it, and growing in the love of the Lord Jesus Christ, through His sacred word.

We will be studying: "A Popular Guide through the Old Testament" by Mary Reed Newland starting Sept. 12 at 10:00AM in room 9. You can contact the facilitator Joan Snyder 446-0694
