

Chicken Fun Facts that Will Ruffle Your Feathers Part 2

- 11) In order for a chick to hatch the internal temperature must be a constant 99.5 F for 21 days.
- 12) Different chicken breeds can lay different color eggs, and the Araucana lays green eggs.
- 13) When chickens feel stressed they start to loose their feathers.
- 14) Chickens have their own language with over 30 sounds used to communicate.
- 15) Chickens are omnivores.
- 16) In order to clean themselves, chickens take dust baths. They roll in the dirt and sand to help with the oil in their feathers.
- 17) If chickens listen to classical music, they can lay bigger and heavier eggs.
- 18) Chickens have three eyelids.
- 19) Most eggs are laid in the morning between 7 am - 11 am.
- 20) Hens will generally choose their mates based on the size and brightness of the roosters comb on top of his head.

