

Curious Garden

Author: Peter Brown
Illustrator: Peter Brown
Audience: 4-8 years

Faith Conversation Partners

Genesis 1 and 2 remind us that God's created world is good and that we are stewards of it. Psalm 104 describes some of God's plan for the natural world. Psalm 65:9 (JB) speaks of God as a gardener who visits the earth and waters it. This is a natural for study units about nature and God's providence, for families that plant gardens with children. The Curious Garden Response to Literature.

Faith Talk Questions

1. How did the city look without plants?
2. What did Liam do to make the garden grow?
3. What other living things came with the gardens?
4. What signs do you see that caring for nature is good for the people around you?
5. What does it take for us to make a garden?
6. In what ways is God a gardener?
7. Plant some seeds and watch them grow. It's a miracle.

