Welcome to the 2nd Annual Au Sable River Valley Studio Tour!

Norte Maar is pleased to once again collaborate with Jay Craft Center, Young's Studio & Gallery and Jackie Sabourin's Stoneledge Pottery to bring back the Au Sable River Valley Studio Tour for its second year! This year's Studio Tour expands to include over twenty-five artist studios and art spaces offering a variety of creative arts and spotlighting artists working in the townships of the Au Sable River Valley. This free self-guided tour gives an insider look into the creative process of how artists, craft-makers, and designers work.

Special thanks to our lead sponsor Ward Lumber and lead media sponsor Studley Printing / Lake Champlain Weekly. Their generous support helps make this annual event happen. And please be sure to visit all our sponsors, as they make living in the Adirondacks that much more special!

About Norte Maar:

Founded in 2004 in the village of Rouses Point on the shores of Lake Champlain, Norte Maar for Collaborative Projects in the Arts is a 501(c)3 non-profit arts organization founded by curator Jason Andrew and choreographer Julia K Gleich with a mission to create, promote, and present collaborations among the visual, literary and performing arts to connect emerging artistic communities and foster the imaginative energy in us all.

2016 Au Sable River Valley Studio Tour is supported in part by Friends of Norte Maar, 20 Main Tavern, ADK Cafe, Adirondack Life Magazine, The Birch Store, Brookside Motel, Candy Man | ADK Chocolates, Cedar Run Bakery & Market | Cedar Run Wine & Spirits, Corscaden Barn Gallery, Joy Walking Gardens, Keene Arts, Ledge Rock at Whiteface, Little Super Market, Mad River Tavern & Pizza Co., Upper Jay Art Center | The Recovery Lounge, and Whiteface Mt. Regional Visitors Bureau. Lead media sponsorship from Lake Champlain Weekly and Ward Lumber.

2016 Au Sable River Valley Studio Tour is supported in part by funds from the Decentralization Program, a regrant program of the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature and administered by the Adirondack Lakes Center for the Arts.

29 Upper Jay Art Center / The Recovery Lounge

Founded by Scott and Byron Renderer in 2005, The Upper Jay Art Center is a place to enjoy music, theater, and visual art. In 2008, it incorporated as a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization and, with a wink and a nod the brothers, upholsterers by trade, they named the performance space The Recovery Lounge. Over the past decade, the Lounge has become an essential gathering place in the Au Sable River Valley, bringing an eclectic array of professional musicians to this rural corner of the Northeast Adirondacks throughout the year and staging plays by classic and contemporary playwrights, acted by an ever expanding troupe of local talent.

You can't miss it – the tallest building in Au Sable Forks! Built in 1911, it sits at the entrance to town between the bridge and the Hollywood Theater.

Today Tahawus Center is a place for ideas – with room to move!

The WINDOWS ART GALLERY presents the work of local and visiting artists, and symposiums, education programs including a Summer Science Lab
for Youth, and Post Film Chats – following monthly presentations of Tahawus' Au Sable Forks Cultural Film series at the Hollywood Theater.

The CLOUDSPLITTER STUDIO is the most beautiful dance studio in the Adirondacks! Here is instruction in ballet for youth, early childhood creative movement, the popular ballroom dance workshops
for adults and community-wide, year round yoga.
You can also rent studio space for rehearsals,
projects, and private lessons by the hour.

Directors Rebecca Kelly and Craig Brashear have been familiar faces throughout the North Country since 1987 bringing the NYC-based Rebecca Kelly Ballet and the annual OnStage program to the region. In 2008 they turned their vision toward the development of a cultural and community center in the Adirondacks.
