TETNA TRICK OR TREAT

HAUNTING THE 'HOOD

By Breanna Suskey-Peyton

TETNA's Halloween Trick or Treat nighttime event is back and better than ever! Mark your calendars for the evening of Saturday, Oct. 27.

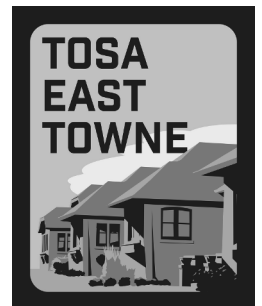

Every year, TETNA offers this safe and fun event in our neighborhood. This year we are continuing to open the TETNA Trick or Treat event to all neighborhood blocks! So, get your costumes and spooky faces ready to explore the Halloween festivities that our whole neighborhood has to offer.

The Trick or Treat event is from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Oct. 27 and for TETNA registered members. The trick-or-treating is for children ages 14 and younger. The whole family is welcome to join the fun, and each group of children should be accompanied by at least one adult. You must register to be an official event participant – whether your little goblins will be trick-or-treating or you will be handing out candy (or both).

City gives OK to new signs on lampposts

In August, the Wauwatosa Board of Public Works approved our sign design and the installation of 49 of our signs on the lampposts around the neighborhood.

We're grateful to all who donated to our campaign and for the great design work of Zack Goehner. We look forward to providing updates on installation as we continue to work though the process with the city.

Tosa's All-City Read goes to 'Eleven'

By Nancy Hall

Tosa's All-City Read, for those unfamiliar with the event, invites city residents to join in reading a book together and then gathering in February for discussion groups and other activities held throughout the city. This is the sixth year for the program, sponsored by the Wauwatosa Neighborhood Association Council, of which TETNA is a member.

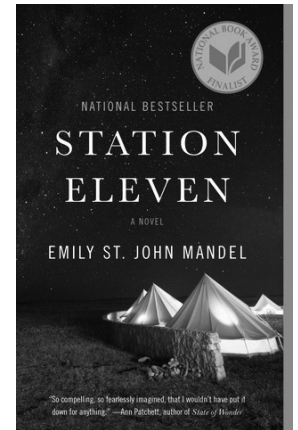

This year's selection is "Station Eleven" by Emily St. John Mandel, winner of the Toronto Book Award and the Arthur C. Clarke Award and a finalist for the National Book Award and the PEN/Faulkner Award. For 2018-19, Tosa's All-City Read received a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts to assist with its February events, which will include an evening with Emily St. John Mandel.

The book is set in the dystopian future, in the aftermath of a worldwide pandemic that kills most of the world's population. The story focuses on the intersecting lives of survivors of the pandemic and on their efforts to preserve the vestiges of their rapidly vanishing civilization. Central to the novel are the Traveling Symphony, a troupe of actors and musicians dedicated to keeping Shakespeare and classical music alive, and a group of stranded airline passengers who create a Museum of Civilization composed of the objects they've carried with them from all over the world.

Copies of "Station Eleven" are available through the Wauwatosa Public Library and through area and online booksellers. Check the Tosa's All-City Read website at tosasallcityread.com for more info.

SUMMER NEIGHBORHOOD RECAP

Gran Prix turns East Tosa into cycling hub

There are few East Tosa traditions as exciting as the East Tosa Gran Prix, and this year's race was no exception.

Hosted by East Toas Alliance and held Sunday, July 1, the cycling race was once again the culmination of the statewide Tour of America's Dairyland. And while rain briefly put a damper on the fun, it was otherwise a great day for racing, both for the cyclists and the fans who were able to watch from the sidewalks.

This isn't a TETNA event, but we're glad to have it as a part of the neighborhood's annual schedule.

RUMMAGE SALE

Speaking of rain, nasty weather made the 2017 Neighborhood Rummage Sale a bit of a drag, so we were pleased that the rain held off this year and plenty of people got out June 2 to see what their neighbors had for sale. Find any hidden gems?

Plenty of items were for sale during the Neighborhood Rummage.

DONATION DELIVERED

Finally, a Run Tosa Run update.

TETNA's Board President David Paulsen presented our $6,000 donation Aug. 16 to Ronald McDonald House Charities Eastern Wisconsin. Thanks to all who helped us raise money for this great local organization.

Ann Petrie, CEO of Ronald McDonald House Charities Eastern Wisconsin, accepts the Run Tosa Run proceeds check from David Paulsen.

GET INVOLVED IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD

Consider taking on a more active role with your neighborhood association. Events like the nighttime Trick or Treat, Spring Egg Hunt or Run Tosa Run only happen because of volunteers like you, and without active neighbor involvement our association wouldn't last long.

Email info@tosaeasttowne.org if you would like information on any of the following roles:

- Board member
- Newsletter content
- Newsletter distribution

The help you can provide may only require a few hours. It also might turn into something you look forward to each year or every month.

And we're always looking for new ideas. Maybe you have a few, about how to make our neighborhood even better. Share them with us, and let's work together to make it happen.

Want to trick-or-treat?

Come to the registration and sign up! The first 500 people to drop off their candy at registration will be given a reusable trick or treat bag (maximum of 5 per registered household). All participants will get a glow stick for each trick-or-treater. The cost to participate is a 100-piece bag of candy per child. The candy must be individually wrapped and factory sealed. Due to safety concerns, we cannot accept opened bags of candy.

If you also are handing out candy and want to keep the kind you bought, just let us know at in-person registration, or you can just sign up online. (If you still need to renew or join TETNA, you will need to complete registration first, but you can sign up online).

Want to hand out candy?

Come to registration and sign up! You will get a sign to put in your window to identify your house as a TETNA participant and some candy to get you started.

Note that this is a very popular event and we're not able to provide all the candy that you might need to accommodate all the trick-or-treaters.

You can either purchase more candy on your own or turn out your light when the candy runs out. Note: if you don't plan to accept candy from TETNA, you can sign up online at tosaeasttowne.org and print your Trick or Treat sign.

Teal Pumpkin Project

Don't forget about the Teal Pumpkin Project too. Teal is the color for food allergy awareness, and trick-or-treat events present significant risks to those children who have been diagnosed with food allergies. The homes decorated with these brightly colored pumpkins indicate participation and support for the Teal Pumpkin Project. Signs will also be available for pick up at registration.

New this Year

In addition to trick-or-treat, TETNA will be holding a house decorating contest. Register your house at tosaeasttowne.org by Friday, Oct. 26. All registered homes will be eligible to win, and highlighted on the decorated homes map available online. Secret judges will be out from 6:30-8:30 on Saturday night. Winners will be announced and prizes distributed Sunday, Oct. 28.

Not a TETNA member yet?

Become a member and register for the event at the same time! Our membership year runs from Oct. 1-Sept. 30. Register and pay online, or bring your dues, a membership registration form and a Trick or Treat registration form (the ones found in this newsletter). We will have extra forms if you forget. But make sure to bring your bags of candy for all your trick-or-treaters!
