TETNA LAUNCHES SIGN CAMPAIGN

Tosa East Towne will follow neighborhoods like Inglewood and Pabst Park in purchasing signs for display on cross streets.

By Kristen Stoll

Residents of the Tosa East Towne neighborhood share something in common: the desire to make this a better place. To show our unity – and to bring awareness to the safe, fun and exciting events happening here – the TETNA board has moved forward with the process of designing an updated logo for display on new lamppost signs throughout the neighborhood.

$500 OK'D FOR NEW EVENT

By David Paulsen

TETNA is all about highlighting the best that our East Tosa neighborhood has to offer, so it's no surprise that some of the association's most fulfilling work is the events we host, from the Egg Hunt, Run

Tosa Run and Rummage Sale in the spring to Trick or Treat and Taste of East Tosa in the fall.

This year, your TETNA board has been sizing up our calendar of events and identifying successes to

Taste of East Tosa

Thursday,
Nov. 16

Register for Taste of East Tosa today and check our website and Facebook for participating restaurants.

With so many great restaurants in East Tosa, it sometimes is hard to choose one for dinner. On Thursday, Nov. 16, you don't have to choose just one. Come to our annual Taste of East Tosa dinner at the historic Kneeland-Walker House, 7406 Hillcrest Drive, for a sampling from several local East Tosa restaurants.

Taste of East Tosa is TETNA's premiere adults-only event and a great opportunity to join with your neighbors, meet the TETNA board and celebrate all of the things we love about our neighborhood.

Desserts and sodas will also be provided. You are welcome to bring your own alcoholic beverage or favorite cocktail, however, the Wauwatosa Historical Society prohibits red wines. Party attire can be festive, not fussy. A tour of the house is also available.

Last year's meal featured delicious samplings from Café Blue, Tosa Bowl and Bun, BelAir Cantina, Hue Vietnamese, North Ave. Grill, Harwood Place/Lutheran Home, Tall Guy and a Grill, Red Dot, Cranky Als, Rocket Baby Bakery, Juniper61, Ted's Restaurant and Irie Zulu. This year's lineup is still being assembled. Check our website and Facebook page for updates.

The event begins at 6:30 p.m., and tasting is at 7 p.m. Complete your RSVP form today (page 12) to reserve your spot for $10. RSVP via mail by Nov. 12 or online by Nov. 15.

Consider becoming a block watch captain

A string of carjackings in our neighborhood this summer had residents on edge, and although police have arrested a suspect in the crimes, residents are encouraged to consider becoming a block watch captain to help keep the neighborhood safe in the future.

The carjackings "provided a good example of how the block watch captains could be used to transmit vital information to neighbors," Tosa East Towne safety liaison Tim Sumiec said. "We have to get creative to reach as many people as possible, not only for troubling events but for fun community events as well."

The main requirement of the block watch captain is to deliver the "Tosa Watch" newsletter on a quarterly basis. If you are interested in gathering your neighbors and hosting an introductory block watch meeting, community policing officers from the Wauwatosa Police Department would come and speak; further explaining the program and police expectations.

The following are blocks that are in need of block watch captains. Contact Sumiec at timsumiec@gmail.com for more info:

TOSA ALL-CITY READ

Pick up a copy of 'Lab Girl'

By Nancy Hall

Tosa's All-City Read, for those unfamiliar with the event, invites city residents to join in reading a book together and then gathering in February for discussion groups and other activities held throughout the city. This is the fifth year for the program, sponsored by the Wauwatosa Neighborhood Association Council, of which TETNA is a member.

This year's selection is "Lab Girl," by Hope Jahren. The book is a beautifully written account of Jahren's life as a scientist, intertwined with relevant observations and information about the lives of the plants that she studies. Often, she cites plant behavior to reflect or expand on her own evolution as a woman and a scientist, or to reinforce what experience has taught her about life or human nature. She does this deftly and with a light touch, so that it never feels forced or obvious.

Hers is a complex story that has taken her from her childhood in Minnesota, to studies and jobs and fellowships all over the world. Along the way, she had to learn to live with bipolar disorder. While working on her PhD at Berkley, one of Jahren's responsibilities was to take students on field trips to study soil by digging holes and "stooping over them for hours." On one field trip, she observed a student who seemed to have an unusual fascination with holes. His name was Bill and he advised her the he liked to dig because he had once lived in hole.

So began one of the more remarkable and engaging aspects of her story, which is her lifelong friendship with Bill. She and Bill became inseparable partners in science, if not romance, and moved together from one lab to another even when Jahren's meager grants did not include money for Bill. He slept in one lab that he helped her build and lived in a car in a parking lot outside another, until she reached the stature as a scientist that allowed her to pay Bill enough that he could buy a house, a few doors down from the one she shared with her new husband.

The official name for Jahren's speciality is geobiology. This is the study of the relationship between the biosphere and the geosphere. She has won a number of awards in her field including three Fulbright Fellowships, the Donath Medal awarded by the Geological Society of America, and the Macelwane Medal from the American Geophysical Union. In 2016, she was listed as one of Time Magazine's 100 Most Influential People. She is presently living in Oslo with her husband and son, teaching and conducting research through the University of Oslo's Centre for Earth Evolution and Dynamics. Bill Hagopian is her lab manager.

"Lab Girl" is adult non-fiction but suitable for most readers of high school age and above. There are copies of the book available through the Wauwatosa Public Library and through area and online booksellers. Check the Tosa's All-City Read website at tosasallcityread.com for more info, or visit the Facebook page.

emphasize, as well as events that may no longer be worth bringing back. And we've been discussing ideas for new events to offer to the neighborhood.

The annual Egg Hunt, for example, has grown steadily in recent years. Our Block Party/Movie Night, on the other hand, has seen turnout diminish. We've decided to end that event while supporting other great events being held at the park.

We don't want to reduce our lineup without trying to replace old events with new ideas that have potential to become annual favorites. That's where you come in.

The TETNA board approved up to $500 in this year's budget as seed money to create a new event. We have received several suggestions and now are looking for residents willing to help organize one or more of the new events, such as:

Winterfest, an East Tosa pub crawl, roller skating night, movie night (at Rosebud), outdoor sports game screenings and a kickball tournament.

If you would like to volunteer, or suggest a different idea, email us at info@tosaeasttowne.org. Events preferably have a revenue stream to help offset the cost, but we still may pursue certain worthy events without revenue streams if TETNA deems them beneficial to our members.

SUMMER NEIGHBORHOOD RECAP

Construction underway on pocket park

By David Paulsen

One of the most visible developments in our neighborhood this summer has been the construction of a pocket park at the parking lot next to Rocket Baby Bakery, at 69th Street and North Avenue.

The project is expected to be finished this fall, creating a unique gathering space at one of East Tosa's most prominent intersections. Wauwatosa Now has reported the design includes a shade structure, string lights, tables, benches and a bike rack.

As part of this project, the vacant city lot behind Voline is being converted into parking spaces, so although we will lose the former parking lot, the project will end up with a net loss of only one space.

We're looking forward to the opening of this fun new public venue, and we are sure it will be put to great use, from our Run Tosa Run in May to the Chili'n on the Avenue event in September.

SIX STRINGS ON CENTER

Center Street Park continues to be a great gathering place for summers in Tosa East Towne, and this summer was particularly tuneful, with live music provided each month through the Six Strings on Center series. It was hosted by Friends of Center Street Park and spearheaded by resident Michael Phillips, who says, "the attendance has exceeded my expectations."

Unfortunately, another popular Center Street Park event, Que & Brew, had a rocky second year.

Organizers had to cancel this year's July 4 weekend cookoff, partly due to issues with insurance coverage, but we hope to see the lineup of BBQ chefs at the park next year.

TETNA RUMMAGE SALE

Thanks to everyone who participated in this year's neighborhood-wide TETNA Rummage Sale, another benefit of being an association member.

Although rain dampened turnout on June 3, we had 50 participating households and saw a good number of deal-seekers traveling from house to house during the day. Thanks to Jill Stephany for organizing this year.

RUN TOSA RUN DONATION

Finally, we presented our $5,000 donation from Run

Tosa Run to Ronald McDonald House Charities Eastern Wisconsin at the charity's Aug. 17 board meeting. Thanks again to all who made this year's race a success. We look forward to seeing you at the starting line of next year's Run Tosa Run, when the race date will be May 19.

SIGN CAMPAIGN

To get started, the TETNA board has been in conversations with nearby neighborhoods that already have purchased signs, such as Inglewood and Pabst Park, and with the City of Wauwatosa to better understand the process and cost of creating and installing about 80 signs up and down the streets of Tosa East Towne. Exact sign specifications and locations are still being decided upon. Updates will be communicated through our various communications, including our website, emails and Facebook page.

CALL FOR DESIGNS

TETNA will be accepting submissions for proposed designs of our updated logo to be used on our lamppost signs. Visit tosaeasttowne.org/signs for more details.

As a wholly volunteer organization committed to creating a sense of community throughout our neighborhood, this exciting opportunity cannot be accomplished without the financial support of residents like you.

A fundraising campaign for this project will begin in October to coincide with our annual membership drive and will continue into the spring, or until we reach our goal of $2,500. To support this effort today, you may send your donation by check to TETNA, P.O. Box 26721, Wauwatosa, WI 53226. Include "Sign fund" in the memo field. Any money raised above our goal will be added to our TETNA scholarship fund. An option to donate online also will be available during membership renewal in late October.

TETNA Trick or Treat is Oct. 28

sign to put in your window to identify your house as a TETNA participant and some candy to get you started.

Note that this is a very popular event and we're not able to provide all the candy that you might need to accommodate all the trick-or-treaters.

You can either purchase more candy on your own or turn out your light when the candy runs out.

Note: if you don't plan to accept candy from TETNA, you can sign up online and print your Trick or Treat sign at home.

Don't forget about the teal pumpkin project too. Homes decorated with these brightly colored pumpkins indicate treats suitable for children who have been diagnosed with food allergies.

Not a TETNA member yet?

Become a member and register for the event at the same time! Our membership year runs from Oct. 1-Sept. 30. Register and pay online, or bring your dues, forms and candy to registration.

Volunteer

As always, we are looking for volunteers to help make this event successful. If you are interested in helping, visit signup.com/go/yjkyWKh
