Annual TETNA Nighttime Trick-Or-Treat

When: Saturday, October 31, 2015

Halloween Night

Time: 6:30pm-8:30pm

Rain or Shine

TETNA's Halloween Trick or Treat nighttime event is back and it's going to be bigger and better than ever! Mark your calendars for the evening of Oct. 31 and plan to attend this spooktacular event from 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Every year TETNA offers this safe and fun event in our neighborhood. In the past, the trick or treat blocks have been limited to certain areas. This year we are going all out and opening the TETNA Trick or Treat event to the ENTIRE neighborhood! So get your costumes, candy buckets and spooky faces ready to explore the Halloween festivities that our whole neighborhood has to offer.

The Trick or Treat event is for TETNA members and the trick-or-treating is for children ages 14 and under. The whole family is welcome to join the fun and each group of children should be accompanied by at least one adult. You must register to participate in the event – whether your little goblins will be trick-or-treating or you will be handing out candy (or both!).

Trick-or-treating? Come to the registration and sign up! You will get a glow stick for each trick-or-treater and a map with event info. The cost to participate is a 100-piece bag of candy PER CHILD. The candy must be individually wrapped and factory sealed. Due to safety

Hello Neighbors,

I am writing this note on an unseasonably cool August day, a small foreshadowing of the joys we have to look forward to during fall in Tosa: cooler weather to walk to our favorite spots for coffee or drinks, afternoons raking leaves, and evenings cuddling under a blanket enjoying a good book or movie.

This summer we enjoyed many of activities in the sun as well: farmer's markets, fun runs, gardening and lawn mowing, and an evening under the stars enjoying an outdoor movie with our neighbors. We had a great time at our annual neighborhood block party and movie night in August. Thanks to the efforts of our board members, especially Sarah and Cindy, and past board members Jason and Bobby, and other volunteers – we were able to enjoy fresh grilled corn, a bounce house and water balloons, and a big budget movie at Center Street Park. It was a great opportunity for families of all ages to spend time together and connect in a low stress environment. If you want to be part of making this event happen next year, we need new people to step up and help. Please let us know if you can be part of the planning committee for next year.

I also want to take a minute to highlight the work of our Board – we have a committed group of residents who meet once a month to review the organization. This is a very thoughtful group of people, who love our neighborhood and want it to be the best place to live. Sometimes it feels like the topics we cover are never ending, but that is only because we are unwilling to let this organization be static. We have spent time the past few months reviewing our communications strategy, developing an advertising plan, reviewing and making changes to Trick or Treat, and bringing our membership registration and payment online. Every change is the result of hours of discussion and consideration. As with any all-volunteer organization, with each change will come some growing pains, but this group is committed to continuing to grow this organization into one of the best in the city. You are always welcome to join us at our meetings, check the website be sure of our location each month.

The biggest change I want to highlight this month is our expansion of Trick or Treat to include the whole neighborhood this year. Any home on our neighborhood map can distribute candy, so you can trick or treat on your block! This decision grew out of the results of an online survey and many discussions at our board meetings. We know there are many blocks that have been itching to participate in past years – this is your chance! Challenge your neighbors to participate – there is no requirement to go all out decorating, just turn on your porch light, grab some candy and get ready for all of the cute costumes to come your way. We need lots of participation to make this expansion a success, check out the rest of this issue or our website for more details and thanks in advance for your patience as we try this expansion.

ASSOCIATION MEETINGS

Association meetings are open to everyone in the Tosa East Towne neighborhood. Please feel free to attend. Meetings for 2015 are currently scheduled for January 18, February 16, March 16, April 20, May 18, June 15, July 20, August 17, September 21, October 19 and November 12.

All meetings are held at 7:00 p.m. The meeting locations are to be determined and will be announced on Facebook.

Tosa East Towne Neighborhood Association Philosophy

To provide a welcoming and nurturing environment, and to maintain the quality of life and the sense of community through shared interest and neighborhood interaction.

East Tosa Gardens - Composting & Worm Bins

Don't be intimidated by composting! It can be cheap and easy, and with a little practice, the process can be very beneficial. There are many ways to compost at home.

Compost is the stuff you get when garden debris, yard waste, and kitchen scraps break down into beautiful, rich, dark soil. Also called "humus" (HYOO/ mus), it is so full of nutrients that some call it "Black Gold." Bacteria and microorganisms break down the organic material into fertile earth.

One way to compost is with red worms. A storage bin with holes around the top for ventilation works just fine. Fill the bin with shredded color-free newspaper, coconut coi, and some kitchen scraps. Avoid putting dairy, citrus and meats in the bin. (Think of your worms as vegan.) Keep a plastic spoon in or near the bin to stir and churn the debris and to bury the new addition of scraps. Gage the right amount of kitchen scraps according to the worm's consumption of previous additions.

Don't worry: the worms will not come out of the bin to wander around your house! They are simple creatures and want to stay where the food is. When you are ready to harvest the soil, or castings, place a bowl with holes on the bottom on top of the soil, then place your kitchen scraps in that bowl. The worms will gather in the bowl of food, leaving the rich soil for you to spread on your garden. Use the worms in the bowl to repopulate the bin after you have removed the soil.

Another way to compost is a compost bin in your backyard. All organic material will break down. Even if you just throw your yard waste into a hole in the ground, it will eventually make compost.

How quickly materials break down depends on four aspects: moisture, oxygen, temperature and good ingredients. The compost pile should be damp but not wet, well-aerated, warm and have lots of different matter.

You will want to control the moisture: A lid will keep unwanted excess water from your compost. Drainage at the bottom is important too. Too much water causes odor-causing bacteria to build up, and the rain can wash away nutrients if allowed free-reign.

Aeration can be achieved though tossing with a pitchfork in a simple enclosure in your yard, or there are several gadgets that help with the churning of the debris, like the Biosphere or other barrel-type inventions.

Temperature is a key factor in the breaking down of material. The fastest decomposition happens between 140 and 160 degrees F, but it will also continue to occur as long as the temps are above freezing. The microbes will raise the temperature as they work so the only concern for the owner is insulation. Choose a bin with a dark color and set it in the sun. The material in the middle will get the warmest, insulated by the outer debris. As you aerate your compost, you will automatically mix the cooler material to the center for its turn in the warmth.

Materials that make the best compost are a combination of debris. The ideal mix is 75% brown material and 25% green material or a 50/50 mix by weight of kitchen scraps to yard waste. Brown material includes dried grass, leaves, newspaper. Green material refers to vegetable peels and fruit rinds. If your compost is too wet, add more "brown" stuff. If too dry, add more green "stuff"

It is not the end of the world if you take a step in the wrong direction. There is no wrong answer. Add, subtract, and play around with what works for you. Remember, if your car is going the wrong direction, you don't just dump it and start over: you make adjustments and turn it around!

concerns, we cannot accept opened bags of candy. Also, if you are handing out candy and want to keep the kind you picked out, just let us know at registration.

Handing out candy? Come to the registration and sign up! You will get a TETNA Trick or Treat sign to put in your window to identify your house as a TETNA participant and some candy to get you started. Note that this is a very popular event and we're not able to provide all of the candy that you might need to accommodate all the trick-or-treaters. You can either purchase additional candy on your own, or turn out your light when the candy runs out.

Not a TETNA member yet? Either register online, as explained below, or come register for the event AND sign up to be a member for 2015-2016! Our membership year runs from Oct. 1-Sept. 30. At the time of registration, please bring the membership dues of $10.00 and a completed 2015-2016 Annual Household Registration Form. We will have extra forms if you forget. But make sure to bring your bags of candy for all your trick-or-treaters!

Online Registration New this year, you can register and pay for your annual membership along with Trick-or-Treating completely online at www.tosaeasttowne.org If you would prefer to give out your own candy, we will send you the display sign for you to print, and there is nothing more you need to do. However, if you plan to have any trick-or-treaters participating or want to hand out some of the awesome TETNA-provided candy, you will need to stop by to pick up/drop off at the in-person registration.

When and Where to Register

Tuesday, October 27, 6:30pm-8:00pm
 Thursday, October 29, 6:30pm-8:00pm
 Saturday, October 31, 8:30am-10:00am
 Please see our website www.tosaeasttowne.org or our Facebook page for more information on the location of registration.

Volunteer

As always, we are looking for volunteers to help make this event successful. Volunteering also provides you the opportunity to meet others in the neighborhood. If you are interested in helping with registration or in another capacity, please visit our Volunteer Spot at <http://vols.pt/UCZjmw> to sign up or contact the event chair Erica Storm (erica.storm@zywave.com). We are also looking for a new co-chair for this event! Contact Erica if you are interested.

Stay tuned to the TETNA website and Facebook for more information.

TETNA looks forward to another successful spooktacular event!

New this year:
 Trick or Treat is open to all blocks in TETNA. If this is your block's first year handing out candy, consider joining your neighbors to make it a fun party for all.

Holiday Social and Cookie Exchange

December 7th 7:00–9:00 PM
Center Street Park Pavilion

Join your neighbors Monday, December 7th at 7:00 p.m. at the Center Street Park Pavilion for a Holiday Social and Cookie Exchange to kick off the holiday season. We will bring the park building to life with our most interesting holiday decor (feel free to bring yours to share) and a roaring fire to ward off winter's chill. During the party, we will sample our treats, drink some hot cocoa or coffee, compare holiday traditions and discuss our plans for outdoor holiday displays.

The cookies don't need to be fancy – just make up your favorite recipe, or try a new one. Get together with a neighbor and bake together. The more bakers we have, the better!

Here's what you do:

- Pick your favorite cookie recipe.
- Make eight dozen cookies and bring them to the exchange. Do NOT separate or package cookies in bunches. DO bring a large container to take your mix of cookies home in. (Extra or broken cookies? Bring them to the exchange for nibbling.)

Here's what you get:

- A wonderful assortment of cookies – with the simple effort of one recipe.
- A few hours off to really enjoy the giving spirit of the holiday season. Nibble cookies while sharing laughter and stories with your neighbors.

Not planning on baking but you still want to be part of the fun? No problem! Make up your favorite holiday appetizer or other treat to share and come socialize with the rest of us. There will be cookies to sample for all. Maybe you will be inspired to try baking one of the new recipes you discover. However, only those who bring cookies will be invited to take cookies home.

Taste of East Tosa
November 12, 2015
6:30 – 9:00 pm
Kneeland Walker
House
7406 W. Hillcrest Dr.

On November 12, we will gather at the beautiful Kneeland Walker House for a dinner of samplings from local East Tosa restaurants – a Taste of East Tosa, if you will. Area businesses will donate platters of food for the attendees to try as music fills the house. The resplendent furnishings reflect the evening's easy but luxurious feel. This adult-only event is a relaxed opportunity to meet the TETNA Board and other residents from the neighborhood. Many rooms make for many conversations. A tour of the house is also available.

Every year the TETNA Board members provide a plate of desserts to share. But this year, there will also be a contest for the most delicious dessert item!

Come taste, sample, vote and converse!

Neighborhood Reads – The TETNA Bookclub

TETNA has had an active book group for the past few years, which meets once a month to discuss a wide range of books. The meetings are brief, normally around an hour, during which we discuss the best and worst about that month's book. We try to pick books that are readily available in the public library system, so they are often older books, or not quite on the bestseller list. Our genres range from mystery to classic to non-fiction and beyond. We are always excited to find a book written by a local author, or set in Wisconsin. A few times we have extended the fun by arranging to see a movie showing of one of our books, eating at a restaurant specializing in food featured in a book, or meeting an author when they come to town.

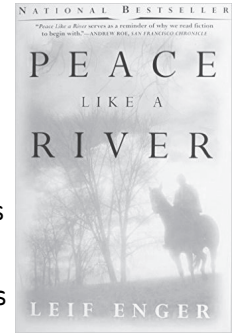

Meeting once a month to discuss a book chosen by others, really forces us outside of our comfort zone. Often the book is not a book that we would pick up on our own, and sometimes we have to force ourselves to finish reading it in time for the meeting. But often, after sharing observations about the book with others, we find that the story sticks with us long after we have returned it to the library. If you are interesting in joining our neighborhood group, contact Christina at cpiel@wi.rr.com to find out our current book and next meeting date.

If you are looking expand the depth and breadth of your personal reading list, consider picking up one of these books that our group has read over the years:

- Killer Angels* by Michael Sharra
- Smoke Gets in Your Eyes* by Caitlin Doughty.
- Return to Wake Robin* by Marnie Mammaing
- The Ways of the Dead* by Neely Tucker
- The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry* by Rachel Joyce
- The Paris Architect* by Charles Belfoure.
- Train Dreams* by Denis Johnson.
- The Leisure Seeker* by Michael Zadoorian
- My Antonia* by Willa Cather
- The Language of Flowers* by Vanessa Diffenbaugh
- Interpreter of Maladies* by Jhumpa Lahiri
- The Midwife: A Memoir of Birth, Joy, and Hard Times* by Jennifer Worth
- Cutting for Stone*, Abraham Verghese
- Orphan Train*, Christina Baker Kline
- Angle of Repose* by Wallace Stegner
- One Thousand White Women* by Jim Fergus
- Great Gatsby*, F. Scott Fitzgerald
- The Snow Child* by Eowyn Ivey
- Stumbling on Happiness* by Daniel Gilbert
- Sister of My Heart* by Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni

All-City Read Selection for 2015-16 – Peace Like a River

Tosa's All-City Read, for those unfamiliar with the event, invites city residents to join in reading a book together and then gathering in February for discussion groups and other activities held throughout the city. The event's slogan is "One book. One City. Lots of ways to bring neighbors together." This is the third year for the program, sponsored by the Wauwatosa Neighborhood Association Council.

This year's selection is Peace Like a River, by Minnesota novelist Leif Enger. It's a classic Midwestern coming of age story, with an element of magic realism, told in retrospect by an adult Reuben Land about a period of turmoil and mystery in his young life. The story focuses on eleven year old Reuben, who struggles with asthma, and his family. He, his younger sister Swede, and their older brother Davy live in rural Minnesota with their loving father Jeremiah, a deeply spiritual and intelligent man who may have the power to perform miracles.

The story is set into motion when Davy, motivated both by vengeance and concern for his family, commits a serious crime and chooses to flee rather than face the possibility of incarceration. Fearing that Davy will come to harm if the police and FBI apprehend him on the run, the family sets out after him in an Airstream trailer and follows his trail through the rugged and beautiful Badlands. Along the way, they meet two people who change their lives forever.

Enger is an engaging writer and storyteller. The book was popular and well reviewed when it was published in 2001. It won several awards including the American Library Association's Alex Award, for best adult novel for teens. It has been on several lists for notable fiction and was on the New York Times bestseller list. It has also been a selection for community reads in Traverse City, Michigan; Pasadena, California; Rochester, New York; and the state of Iowa.

There are copies of the book available through the Wauwatosa Public Library and through area and online booksellers. Check the Tosa's All-City Read Website at tosasallcityread.com for more information.

Fall Fest
October 17th
Center Street Park

Friends of Center Street Park is pleased to bring back our Fall Fest after a hugely successful inaugural event in 2014. Like last year, activities will include pumpkin carving, scarecrow building, "make your own" caramel apples, a bounce house, pumpkin bowling, arts and crafts, and plenty of apple cider. But this year's festival will kick things up a bit with live music, local food and beverage options, more games and activities, a "pumpkin chuckin" contest and much, much more. We can't wait to see you there!
