NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION

Ask Your Neighbor

Dear Neighbor, I love, love, love to read books and talk about them. Are there other book lovers in East Towne like me?

Dear Neighbor, Help! I need to get myself and the kids out of the house!

Dear Neighbor, I just moved to East Towne. How do I meet people?

Dear Neighbor, How do I get my husband to clean out all that junk in our basement?

Dear Neighbor, Why were all those people running past my house in August? Can I join them?!

Dear Neighbor, I hear there's a tiger lurking in Tosa East Towne. Is that true!?!?

Dear Neighbor, I'd like to find someone to shovel my driveway this winter. Know anyone?

Dear Neighbor, When is night time trick or treat?

Dear Neighbor, I want to go green. How can I start?

Dear East Towne Resident,

The answer to all your questions is: the Tosa East Towne Neighborhood Association! Since 1995, the Tosa East Towne Neighborhood Association has been helping neighbors connect with neighbors to create a strong, active community.

East Towne sponsors great events such as the Spring Egg Hunt, the Fun Run/Walk, the Block Party/Movie Night in the Park and night-time trick or treating. Get involved with North Avenue "Clean and Green" and the Home Energy Efficiency Program. Check out TGIT and meet the Tiger. East Towne can also hook you up with neighborhood playgroups and book clubs and the Holiday Cookie Exchange.

Members enjoy free participation in the annual neighborhood rummage sale. Ambitious kids and teens can list themselves in the youth services directory. High school students can apply for our annual scholarship award!

If you're wondering how to support your neighborhood, get involved or just have some fun. The answer is the Tosa East Towne Neighborhood Association. Fill out your membership form on page 9 today!

President's Letter

HELLO, TOSA EAST TOWNE RESIDENTS!

Another summer done and I can't believe it is over. Too fast. But what wonderful things were accomplished. My girls passed another swimming level with the Rec Dept. Our dog learned that she can swim. I went blonde. My husband shaved his head. And I realized I have a middle-schooler—and all that that implies! (Eye roll.)

But some other things happened that were truly magnificent. My husband works at First Stage Children's Theater and they have a Theater Academy where kids learn "Life Skills Through Stage Skills." It is an amazing place, but the kids are what make it great. There are scholarships for students who really want to come but can't afford it. And the students came up with a way to give back. Pay it forward, if you will. They started a fund called the Kid-To-Kid Campaign. The students bring their spare change, and instead of buying a soda at lunch, they drop it in the bucket. All that change adds up. If on one given day, say, last Wednesday, they raised $700—to break the last record of $635—my husband said he would shave his head. One student did the math and realized that if each of them brought in $3.50 they would break that record and make the goal. $3.50 isn't much. But multiplied by 200?

This year, on that given day, when I went in to shave my husband's head—because we just knew that they would make it—I was astounded at the generosity, enthusiasm, and genuine emotion in the room when the announcement was made for the total. All I heard was, "One thousand..." and then it was cut off by the explosion of cheering, yelling, stomping, and celebrating of the students. Their excitement was bolstered by the thought that others would be able to come and enjoy what they were enjoying. That they were helping others.

One person doing an act of kindness is good. But, a bunch of people performing acts of kindness are a force to be reckoned with!

Look at what they did. Just a bunch of kids. Just a handful of change at a time.

Tosa East Towne did a little of that this summer too. We made a difference and you may have been a part of it. We held our very first Charity Run this year. We wanted to give to Ronald McDonald House Charities because of the good work they do for families with kids at Children's Hospital. Our goal for this first time was to get 50 participants. We got 61! Our goal was to raise $500 to donate. We raised over $850!

So thank you to all who volunteered, who registered, who handed out water, who planned, who set up barricades, who brought bagels, who cheered, who gave mini-massages, who called the stopwatch, who kept their vehicles in their driveways until it was over. Thank you, thank you!

And in the words of my great friend, First Stage Theater Academy director, John Maclay, "One person doing an act of kindness is good. But, a bunch of people performing acts of kindness are a force to be reckoned with!"

Sarah Hunt-Frank, President

Cookies and Love!

MONDAY, DECEMBER 13 • 7:00PM
NEW LOCATION – 2336 N. 64TH STREET

Giving and receiving cookies at the holidays is a tradition—not just because we love little green and red spritz cookies with sprinkles or peanut butter cookies with a great big Hershey's Kiss in the middle. Yes—we love cookies. And, the most delightful, most decadent cookies seem to have their own special time of year to shine.

Giving and receiving cookies at the holidays is tradition. Giving homemade treasures of any kind is a true act of love. Taking time to bake with joy is a gift to the bakers. Giving gifts of cookies is an expression of thanks, friendship and love. Enjoying these wonderful treats with family and friends is a simple moment of bliss.

Expand your joy without expanding your baking efforts. Join in the 6th Annual East Towne Cookie Exchange and your one big batch of cookies will become a fantastic variety of cookies to share and enjoy.

Do you have a friend or family member who loves cookies but doesn't live in the neighborhood? Invite them to join us. Everyone is welcome.

HERE'S WHAT YOU DO:

1. Pick your favorite cookie recipe.
2. Register by December 11th. Call or Email Dawn Zehren 414/727-2873 or DZehren@Shorewest.com.
3. Make six dozen cookies (often a double batch) and bring them to the exchange. Do NOT separate or package cookies in bunches. DO bring a large container to take your mix of cookies home in. (Extra or broken cookies? Bring them to the exchange for nibbling.)

HERE'S WHAT YOU GET:

1. A wonderful assortment of cookies – with the simple effort of one recipe.
2. A few hours off to really enjoy the giving spirit of the holiday season. Sip cider and nibble cookies while sharing laughter and stories with your neighbors.
3. Bonus Option – Plan to give lots of cookies as gifts? Need more than just six dozen? Easy answer. Make two, or three different recipes of cookies, a batch of six dozen each. Bring 12 dozen, take 12 dozen. Bring 18 dozen, take 18 dozen. You choose. Just tell Dawn when you register.

FIRST ANNUAL EAST TOWNE FUN RUN/WALK Fun Runs Away a Success!

Every morning, dozens of Tosa East Towne residents start their day with a run or walk through the neighborhood. On August 14th, many of them decided to meet at Center Street Park and sweat it out together! More than sixty people participated in the first-ever Tosa East Towne Fun Run/Walk, raising a little more than $850 for the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Eastern Wisconsin, Inc.

A few runners breezed through the 5K route in less than 20 minutes. Others decided to enjoy a slower pace, chatting it up with other walkers along the way.

The Tosa East Towne Neighborhood Association would like to thank the volunteers who helped put the event together, and thank the fabulous sponsors who made it all possible: U-TURN Apparel, Cosmos Café, Bobby Pantuso of Coldwell Banker, Riedel Sports, Dawn Zehren of Shorewest Realtors, Parlour Therapeutic Bodyworks and the Milwaukee County Parks.

Special shout-outs go to Alderman Pantuso—the official time keeper, the Milwaukee Evangelical Covenant Church which supplied the water and manned the refreshment stand, Panera Bread for the bagels, and Jacalyn McCoy, owner of Parlour Therapeutic Bodyworks, who provided the much appreciated, free mini-massages!

TETNA President Sarah Hunt Frank declared the new event a success. Run/Walk Chair Craig Brittingham also said he was pleased with the turnout and is already making plans for next year. “It’ll be bigger and badder,” he says. “Spread the word!”

FAMILY FUN DAY 2.0 Party in the Park!

Center Street Park turned into party central August 21st for Tosa East Towne's Block Party and Movie Night (formerly known as Family Fun Day). Hotdogs and brats sizzled on the grill as neighbors played volleyball and croquette. Kids lined up for the face paint and helium balloons, and to take a whack at the pinata.

The party lured about 75 people to the park to eat and play. A cool summer evening made snuggling under a blanket the perfect way to watch Monsters Versus Aliens on the big outdoor screen. Popcorn kept munching movie watchers happy. The cooler temperatures (or maybe it was the aliens and monsters!) kept the munching mosquitoes at bay.

The Block Party was another first-ever for the Tosa East Towne Neighborhood Association this year. It's an event that ALL neighbors, young and old, can enjoy. Look forward to seeing it grow next year!

WAUWATOSA HISTORICAL SOCIETY Members Make a Local Difference!

Since 1977, the Wauwatosa Historical Society (WHS) has worked on behalf of the city's 46,000 residents to save this 168-year-old community's history through architecture preservation, archival storage, artifact displays, research, educational programs and special events.

The WHS was instrumental in uncovering and restoring Depression-era Works Progress Administration murals and creating a permanent display for historic artifacts at Wauwatosa East High School; preserving the city's oldest commercial structure and converting it into the Little Red Store Community and Visitors Center; and, bringing Victorian times alive at the stately Kneeland-Walker House and Gardens.

Make a difference in your community by helping preserve our past for the enjoyment and understanding of all Wauwatosans—today and tomorrow. Join the Wauwatosa Historical Society by downloading a membership brochure at www.wauwatosahistoricalociety.org or calling 774-8672.
