

GOING BEHIND AND BEYOND THE EPISODE

Service: Veteran Stories of Hunger and War

EPISODE 7: "DAD, I CAN'T TALK ABOUT IT."

EPISODE PAGE - ON ITUNES PART 1 PART 2 - ALL EPISODES

CCSS.ELA-INFORMATIONAL.RI.II-I2.7

Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in different media or formats (e.g. visually, quantitatively) as well as in words in order to address a question or solve a problem.

CCSS.ELA-WRITING.W.II-I2.2

Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas, concepts, and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.

Choose 2 of the following resources to explore beyond the episode.
Create a Google Slideshow to present to the class about your topic.
(all available on the episode page at servicepodcast.org)

1. Explore Veterans Coming Home, a public-media campaign focusing on “what works” for veterans when they return to civilian life; Make the Connection for comprehensive information about support for veterans returning home from service; and Military Times’ interactive Veterans Transition Survival Guide for service members.
2. Read one of the first articles about Alcoholics Anonymous in the Saturday Evening Post, Mar 1941.
3. Read about Ernie Pyle and see photos of his WWII work on Business Insider.
4. Visit the Library of Congress online to learn more about Bob Hope’s dedication to entertaining the U.S. troops throughout his career.
5. Learn about how the poppy became a symbol of remembrance after WWI at The American Legion Family and History.com.
6. Read about 9 famous people that served in WWII at History.com.
7. Learn more about Narrative Therapy at Positive Psychology.
8. Read about the healing powers of story telling for veterans in this article from the Ariel Group.
9. Read a Washington Post article about how WWII trauma affects veterans today.
10. This study examines alcohol and drug abuse among U.S. Veterans and provides in-depth information about the relationship between PTSD and substance abuse.
11. Read about how troubled parrots and veterans living with PTSD find solace in one another in this New York Times Magazine article.
12. Learn more about how to help veterans with PTSD with this HelpGuide.

Supplemental Lesson: “In Flanders Fields” - Litchart for poem analysis

NAME:

DATE: