

GOING BEHIND AND BEYOND THE EPISODE

Service: Veteran Stories of Hunger and War

EPISODE 8: WHEN YOU LOOK LIKE THE ENEMY

EPISODE PAGE - EPISODE ON ITUNES - ALL EPISODES

CCSS.ELA-INFORMATIONAL.RI.II-I2.7

Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in different media or formats (e.g. visually, quantitatively) as well as in words in order to address a question or solve a problem.

CCSS.ELA-WRITING.W.II-I2.2

Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas, concepts, and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.

Choose 2 of the following resources to explore beyond the episode.
Create a Google Slideshow to present to the class about your topic.
(all available on the episode page at servicepodcast.org)

1. A mother and her sons live through internment and post-war racism in this article in the LA Times.
2. How do farming and racism and battle fatigue go hand-in-hand? It starts with this Quartz article, The Dangerous Economics of Racial Resentment During World War II. And then you can read more at NPR and this Twitter feed by crop scientist and Farm to Table podcast host Dr. Sarah Taber. There are also more fascinating (and appalling) stats in this post at the Museum of San Francisco.
3. Learn more about the Rhineland Campaign for Bruyères and the Lost Battalion at Go For Broke, and in this book chapter at The 442.
4. Read up on the internment of Japanese and Japanese Americans at Archives.gov, A Brief History of Japanese Relocation During WW2 from the National Park Service, and 12 Facts about Japanese Internment in the United States at Mental Floss.
5. Explore artist Wendy Muruyama's 'The Tag Project' – a recreation with the tags used to identify Japanese during relocation and internment.
6. Not every state issued orders for internment. Here's a map of Japanese internment zones at Britannica and camps at History.com.
7. Watch video interviews with Issei and Nisei (veterans) at Discover Nikkei to hear various opinions about Mike Masaoka's offering of a "suicide squad". Learn more about Masaoka in this biography at Densho.
8. Check out the commendations of the "Purple Heart" 442nd at Go For Broke.

Extra Audio Clips:

- How did "Lawson" become Ichiro's name?
- On the Japanese migration and "shikata ga nai"

NAME:

DATE: