Are you aged between 13 to 17 years old ? Are you free between 28 to 30 June 2013?

General Information

The Buddha Discovery Channel (TBDC) is a program for 13 to 17 years old that offers a unique opportunity to explore the Dhamma through drama. We provide a welcoming space to explore the issues important to you. A variety of activities are used to help with this self-exploration, including meditation, singing, drama and Buddhist devotional puja. It is an opportunity for participants to show their creativity and talents through participating in group activities.

Practical Details

The camp will be led by Tan Ajahn Kusalo from at Bodhinyanarama Monastery, New Zealand and supported by a small group of helpers. At least one male and one female adult will also be resident to help organise domestic arrangement.

Accommodation is provided at Uttama Bodhi Vihara(UBV). Some cleaning and other duties are shared. There are 3 meals and 1 afternoon teabreak a day.

Part of the requirement of staying in a Buddhist setting is to take responsibility for keeping the five precepts during the weekend. This will form the foundation to allow a very open, relaxed and safe environment for all present:-

- 1 Not intentionally harming living beings
- 2 Not taking what does not belong to you
- 3 Not indulging in sexual misconduct
- 4 Not using speech to harm or lie
- 5 Refraining from taking drugs or alcohol

Registration starts at 7.30 pm (please have your dinner at home) on Friday 28 June and the program finishes at 6.00 pm on Sunday 30 June 2013.
