OUR WEDDINGS

BRINGING THE COTSWOLDS CHARM TO YOUR WEDDING

Welcome to the Kings Head Hotel, a historic hotel in the heart of Cirencester with a heritage dating back at least 500 years. Our Georgian banquet hall was faithfully restored in close consultation with English Heritage in 2010; all of the period features were reinstated to their original design following extensive research of paintings and photographs of the room. With the creation of a terrace onto which the banquet hall opens directly, this is now the perfect venue to host wedding ceremonies and celebrations, as it undoubtedly has done over many centuries.

We are delighted to honour the beautiful Cotswolds by featuring as much local produce as possible. Our culinary team have curated a culinary journey respecting the area, working closely and respectfully with our local community. Most produce originates from a 30-mile radius focusing on the best of the Cotswolds. We are thrilled and fortunate to have such amazing partners procuring for us the most incredible meat, fish, dairy and seasonal vegetables. We have gained friendships, and are also doing our bit towards a sustainable environment.

“What was so amazing for us having our wedding at Kings Head Hotel, was that we didn’t just have a wedding day, we had a wedding weekend. We stayed the night before and the night after the wedding and each day was wonderful. The groom’s suite the evening before the wedding was perfect, so close to the Assembly room, and the Bridal suite was stunning. We used the Spa the day after the wedding and wow, what a way to spend your first day married!

You won’t be disappointed picking this venue, we had the most perfect day and cannot wait to go back and visit the venue that gave us such happy memories!”

Why not hand over all these onerous tasks to our Weddings Manager instead?

FAQS

Why should I spend my money on someone else to plan my day when I can do this myself?

With our knowledge along with great relationships with suppliers, we will actually save you money. Weddings are generally expensive and known to be stressful – especially if you don't know where to start. Couples who don't use a planning service tend to spend more money.

Do I have to use your recommended suppliers?

No you don't, you can use whoever you would like and whoever suits you best. The Kings Head Hotel receive discount from a number of our recommended suppliers though.

Will there be an onsite Manager on the day?

Yes, and this is all part of the service!

Why add on these packages when there is an inhouse Manager?

The difference between Venue Planning and Wedding Planning is huge. Our Weddings Manager will always be here to support you and guide you no matter what you choose. However, when it comes to the nitty gritty of details and suppliers, you will need to make sure everything is in place.

If you choose to create your wedding without help, absolutely go for it. However, as your chosen venue, we do need to be provided with the basic information to ensure the smooth running of your day. You will, of course, receive our recommended supplier list, but the final details will be down to you.

Adding on these packages means less worry for you when creating your special day along with more time for your everyday life. You won't need to think about a thing and what you need to do next as we will have everything in hand.

“Daisy helped to organise our special day for us. Our wedding was postponed for 2.5 years due to covid, and Daisy helped to make sure it definitely went ahead this time without a hitch! Daisy was very organised, sent us a big planner to fill in which really helped us to feel calm that everything was in place ready for the big day.

The Kings Head as a venue was just a dream - it has so much character. I never wanted to get married in a hotel, but the Kings Head has so much character and charm, it's such a boutique Cotswold Hotel that it didn't feel like a hotel at all! The ceremony room was stunning, such a grand room, and the chairs the hotel supply are perfect - dainty wicker chairs! We loved being able to use the outside terrace space too, and the use of the allocated bar.

Being in the heart of the Cotswolds our photographer took us outside where we could have some photos taken in the adorable Cotswold streets. The food was delicious - lots of comments on the sticky toffee pudding! (We enjoyed the menu tasting sessions too - we were made to feel like VIPs by The Kings Head team!)

For our evening reception we used the downstairs Vaulted Cellar, which was brilliant and so different to any other venue we have been to. The Vaulted Cellar has its own private bar and eating area too.

Daisy was present on the day of the wedding which was such a reassurance and she was great at making sure my dress looked good for pics!

We had a brilliant day and would highly recommend Daisy and The Kings Head as a wedding venue. I wish we could do it all over again!!!

Thank you!”
