

Has your child been immunized against influenza?

Don't wait! Talk with your child's health care provider about the seasonal influenza vaccine.

Influenza can be serious for healthy children 6 to 59 months of age and children with chronic health conditions. Annual immunization with the seasonal influenza vaccine is an effective and safe way to prevent the spread of influenza and its complications.