Profile

Jaimie Luxenberg earned her doctorate in physical therapy at the University of St. Augustine in San Diego and has been part of the Illinois Bone & Joint Institute team for over 6 years. She has been on the giving and receiving ends of physical therapy, both as a patient, rehab tech, and now as a PT. She has been working as a physical therapist at IBJI since July 2013 and recently transitioned to the Michigan Avenue location this past summer. Jaimie enjoys working with a wide variety of orthopedic and musculoskeletal injuries but has found a particular interest in manual therapy.

Jaimie is currently pursuing her certification of orthopedic manual therapy (COMPT) through the Ola Grimsby Institute. She also loves taking a variety of continuing education courses. She is proud to work for a company that prides itself on quality of care and opportunity for growth.

Jaimie resides in Chicago and in her free time enjoys taking different workout classes, hiking, traveling, trying new brunch spots, and of course spending time with her family and friends.
