

Holly Lindroth, BS, PT, DP

Physical Therapist

2923 N. California Ave, Suite 301
Chicago, IL 60618

T (773) 327-5639

F (773) 327-5358

hlindroth@ibji.com

Profile

Holly Lindroth, PT, DPT has been practicing in orthopedics since graduating from Carroll University's physical therapy program in 2013. Originally from a small town in northern Illinois, Holly moved to Chicago in 2013 to begin her career as a physical therapist at the Logan Square location with Illinois Bone & Joint Institute.

Holly enjoys treating a wide variety of patients with various diagnoses. She is motivated and dedicated in using the most appropriate and evidence-based treatments to facilitate a full recovery. She is currently in the process of obtaining her Manual Therapy Certification which will be completed in April 2018.

Holly has a background in power tumbling and dance. She did her undergraduate studies in Biology at University of Wisconsin - Platteville and studied abroad in Rome, Italy for a semester. Holly also participates in half, full and ultra marathons.

Education

- Doctor of Physical Therapy, Carroll University
- B.S., Biology, University of Wisconsin - Platteville