

UNITING HEAVEN AND EARTH

An Introduction to the Céile Dé Tradition Wisdom House, Litchfield, CT Friday-Sunday, March 20-22, 2015

Emerging from the Celtic lands, the ancient Céile Dé tradition leads us through the gap between our highest aspiration and our everyday reality. Even as we seek that which lies Beyond, we remain grounded in reverence for the Earth that gives us life and ever-births the Incarnation in our surrendered hearts. Suspended between Heaven and Earth, we follow our deep desire to unite the two in Christ and experience the transformative power of Love.

Sue Mosher, an ordained Céile Dé teacher, will offer an experiential introduction to this tradition's philosophy and time-tested practices for spiritual growth, including:

- ⊕ Practicing rùn, the main Céile Dé contemplative method
- ⊕ Using the ancient and powerful Gaelic sacred chants
- ⊕ Observing the ancient holy days and seasons of the Gael
- ⊕ Exploring the role of silence in spiritual growth
- ⊕ Learning about a way of life that supports real transformation through meditation, devotion, inner witnessing, and development of the imaginal senses, the language of Anam or Soul

Ongoing Community

Newcomers will have the opportunity to form a local group for ongoing practice, supported by a powerful container for those who seek a path of commitment and openness to real inner change.

More Information

The retreat will take place at Wisdom House Retreat and Conference Center (www.wisdomhouse.org) on 70 country acres in Litchfield, CT, from Friday dinner through an after-lunch session on Sunday. Both commuter and residential options are available. Commuter cost $270, residential $315/365. Register at www.termonn.org.

To learn more about the Céile Dé tradition, visit www.ceilede.co.uk.

For more information about the workshop, contact ceilede.retreats@gmail.com.

Nature is the face of God.
Spirit is the Invisible God.
In us, they become One.

