Position: Assistant Preschool Teacher

Location: Oakland, CA

Expected Hourly Wage: Based on Experience

Position Summary:

The Assistant Preschool Teacher is responsible for the academic, social-emotional growth and development of all children in their care, which includes children from two to five years old who are diverse racially, developmentally, and temperamentally; this job requires responding to them all appropriately, kindly, and holistically. As well as integrating principles of justice, respect, and liberation into school environment.

Who We Are:

Abundant Beginnings' Forest Freedom school is an inclusive, social-justice forest school. We believe it is a child's right to explore their interests and create lasting relationships within an atmosphere of support and freedom. Our central commitments are to provide education that centers social and environmental justice, creates constructive engagements across difference, and cultivates connections to the earth and our ancestral ecological practices.

We educate our children through a queer ecofeminist lens. In the words of Greta Gaard, this lens requires embracing diversity and "building coalitions for creating a democratic, ecological culture based on our shared liberation." We support our children in this pursuit on the individual level, the community level, and the environmental level. We are committed to growing children rooted in trust, love, and justice - blossoming in independence.

Essential Duties:

- Design and lead circles, including but not limited to songs and age-appropriate engagement with social justice and liberatory topics.
- Provide responsive care to all children by adapting daily caregiving routines and plans to the interests and needs of the individual child and the group.
- Prepare developmental progress reports and parent teacher conferences.
- Develop partnerships with student's caregivers to engage and encourage parent participation in program.
- Demonstrate cultural competency and respect for the child's background by incorporating the cultural, linguistic and familial values and beliefs into the childcare program and lesson plans.
- Facilitate student conflict resolution using non violent practices
- Support Lead Teacher(s).
- Participate in ongoing development and evaluation of the School's goals and objectives
- In accordance with our community philosophy, the person filling this position may occasionally be required to carry out or assist with other tasks in addition to the duties listed on this job description

For Consideration

Please email jobs@abundantbeginnings.org with the answers to the following questions and attach resume (2 education related references included).

1. Please tell us about your background working with children.
2. What is something you have a passion, skill, or experience with that you would like to share with our community? (Can you dance? Do you participate in direct actions? Do you build the most epic sand castles ever?)
3. How would you explain white supremacy to a 4-year-old? (Assume they've asked)
4. A three and six-year-old have been arguing, and one has shoved the other. How might you intervene?

Thank you for your interest.
