

2013 Skills Clinic

presented by Transition Rack and Ann Arbor Velo Club

Sunday, March 24, 2013 • 8:30 AM – 12:30 PM • Ann Arbor, MI

Event website: www.develocoaching.com/2013-skills-clinic

Limited space; pre-registration is required

Kick off your season right by working on bike handling skills that every cyclist—new or experienced—should know and practice.

This clinic is hosted by Lucas Wall of Develo Coaching, a level 2 USA Cycling coach and one of the first Certified Skills Instructors in the US. We will focus on individual skills as well as riding close to other riders. By learning and practicing essential skills riders can ride more safely, efficiently, and react better to unforeseen events, whether racing, touring, or simply riding to the park.

- LOCATION Runway Plaza—Concourse Dr. and Runway Blvd., Ann Arbor, MI
- EQUIPMENT Any bicycle in good working shape. Racers: leave your carbon wheels and nice tires at home—we'll do some activities on grass.
- PRE-REQS Any age and ability is welcome as long as they can pedal, shift, and brake, plus are able to pay attention to others around them during group drills. Advanced category riders will also be challenged by these drills—this not a beginners-only clinic.
- LOCATION Runway Plaza—Concourse Dr. and Runway Blvd., Ann Arbor, MI
- REGISTRATION $20 for all riders; individuals without a USA Cycling license will pay $25 but get $5 refunded at the event. Pre-registration is required and space is limited—this clinic is expected to sell out. See the event website for the registration link.
- DISCOUNT Current members of AAVC take $10 off with discount code shared with current AAVC members.
- MORE INFO Visit www.develocoaching.com/2013-skills-clinic or call 734-635-1341 for registration and event details.
