

The Lifestyle Committee Presents

Snow Hill, Maryland

As part of the Eastern Shore Road Trip Series, joined with Berlin, these two small towns make a wonderful Day Trip

Shopping

You will notice Snow Hill is a place where creativity and sophistication merge in a small town atmosphere to enhance rural living. Snow Hill's main shopping district is set along tree lined streets accented with flowering boxes and charming buildings that date to the late 19th century. The downtown features a variety of unique shops, galleries and working studios with friendly, old-fashioned shopkeepers who welcome you. You will be surprised at what you might find among the unique offerings in the stores.

The creative spirit of the town is defined by the presence of art work displayed in our fine galleries and businesses around town. You will find a variety of styles in our photography, sculpture, pottery, and flat panel work from our very talented local and regional artists.

Rest & Relax

Come to Snow Hill and leave all the stress of the city behind. Life is quiet and peaceful in this small historic town. Spend the night in one of the town's charming Bed & Breakfast Inns.

Take a short drive to Assateague Island for a day at Maryland's pristine beach and look for the wild ponies that call Assateague home.

Get the sand out of your shoes on your return and take a relaxing stroll around the downtown Arts & Entertainment District. Art is everywhere in Snow Hill, earning it a reputation as a fine arts center of the Lower Shore.

Top off the afternoon with a service from Relaxation Heals or The Serenity Shoppe. Choose from massage, Reiki, a facial or a spa manicure or pedicure guaranteed to melt away the last traces of stress.

Have dinner at the Harvest Moon Tavern or the Blue Dog Café. Both are local restaurants, serving wonderful cuisine featuring local vegetables and fresh seafood. You will be glad you did.

As a restful and refreshing night, take a walk along the Pocomoke early in the morning. As the mist rises, you might see egrets flying or fish jumping out of the calm waters of the river. Whatever you choose to do during your stay in Snow Hill, we hope you will be relaxed and refreshed and that you will return to this special place often.

Dining

Restaurants in Snow Hill run the gamut from fast food to fine dining. Down Under on Route 12 is a locally owned drive-in where ice cream specials and subs are featured on the menu. If you come into town from Route 113, stop by McDonald's on Market Street to pick up a quick bite. Also on Market Street Johnny I's is known for its handmade pizza and hoagies. Further up the street, The China Moon offers a variety of Chinese selections for eating in or for carrying out.

The Emporium Dinette and Ice Cream on Pearl Street serves a variety of specials for breakfast and lunch except Sunday. Why not pick up a salad or delicious sandwich and head down to Sturgis Park for a restful picnic by the river? It's sure to add a bright spot to your day.

Harvest Moon Tavern on West Green Street serves homemade food in a friendly relaxing atmosphere at a reasonable price. You will find plenty of room in the large bar area to watch sporting events.

On West Green Street fine dining can be found on weekends at the Blue Dog Café which features vocal entertainment and a variety of delectable local seafood and vegetable dishes. The Palette Bistro & Bar offers intimate dining with a universal menu served in the new upstairs loft or in the downstairs dining area. You never know what wonderful dishes the chef has to offer. Each trip to the Palette is full of surprises and delicious cuisine made from local vegetables and fruits of the sea. The casual atmosphere is inviting and the service is warm and friendly. It is a wonderful way to end a busy day in Snow Hill.

Things to Do

Residents and visitors will find Snow Hill offers many recreational opportunities as well as sights to explore. The Pocomoke River provides great fishing, paddling, or pleasure boating. The three municipal parks along the river offer boat landings, boat dockage and public facilities. Byrd Park also has basketball courts and a playground. The Pocomoke River State Park also offers recreational opportunities as well as camping. For those interested in learning more about the history of Snow Hill and Worcester County, Furnace Town Living Heritage Museum off Rt. 12 and the Julia A. Purnell Museum on Market Street offer a look back in time. The Historic District Walking Tour provides a self-guided walk to see the town's architectural history.
