

COMMUNIQUE

MARCH 9, 2018

CONGRATULATIONS JAMES HODGES

James Hodges, eighth-grade winner of the 2018 ECS Geography Bee, has been notified that he has qualified to compete in the state level competition of the National Geographic Bee. The state level bee will be held on April 6 at Samford University. James will be participating in the state level bee for the second year, having also attended the 2017 bee.

REMINDER - CELL PHONE POLICY

Please be aware that your child's teacher may not receive communication on her cell phone during regular school hours. Do not attempt to contact your child's teacher via cell phone during the school day. The teacher is often unable to return your call or reply to your text until after carpool. If you need to get a message to your child, make carpool or After Care changes, or have an emergency, please call the school office.

FIDDLER ON THE ROOF PHOTOS

Please enjoy photos from last week's musical, Fiddler on the Roof.

Congratulations to all involved on a job well done!
