Primary Gig: Admissions Coordinator, Shalom School

One the side (what do you do in your “free” time): Spend time with my husband and 2 year old daughter, practice yoga, enjoy happy hours with girlfriends, explore the latest and greatest restaurants in the Sacramento region, travel (in 2015 my 2 year old has flown to Mexico, Israel, New York, and Florida as well as Los Angeles multiple times).

Describe yourself in 10 words or less: I am super friendly, responsible, and deeply dedicated to my family as well as creating community amongst young Jewish families in the Sacramento region.

Celebrity Doppelganger/Who would play you in a movie: Sarah Jessica Parker

Where I will be/hope to be in 10 years: In 10 years, I hope to still be working in Jewish education and promoting the Jewish Day School experience while also raising a family that is grounded in Jewish roots and traditions. Additionally, I hope to have more time for home cooking and exercising and one day plan to complete a yoga teacher training.

What I love about growing up or living in Sacramento: I love that Sacramento is a big city with a small town feel. It has such a wonderful quality of life and is so “user-friendly.” I have been here since 2004 and have loved watching the city grow and develop. I am proud to live in such a friendly town that becomes more dynamic and fun each year I am here. I also really appreciate the warm and connected Jewish community and I feel honored to be in a position where I get to watch that part of Sacramento grow as well.
