

Seeking Camp Director for Jewish Day Camp in Sacramento!

Camp Shelanu is heading into its 10th summer and looking for someone who is passionate about Judaism, children and fun! Located on the campus of Congregation B'nai Israel, our camp offers five one-week sessions for campers entering kindergarten through 5th grade (approximately 30 campers per session).

Camp Director responsibilities include:

- The supervision and welfare of campers and staff
- To act as a general resource for all camp and staff programming needs
- Work as a team with the Education Administrator and Camp Committee
- Staff training, program and field trip planning and supply purchasing
- Creation of unique and creative camp programs and weekly and daily schedules
- Communication with families
- Marketing and promotion of camp (including through social media)
- Overseeing registration process and camp budget
- Manage Israeli shaliach placement, training and program development process

Qualifications:

- Must be at least 21 years old.
- Knowledge of Jewish culture, tradition, and history required.
- Camp background, work experience with children and supervisory experience a plus

Camp Dates (includes staff training week): June 26-August 9

Start date: Administrative duties as needed beginning in February (can work remotely during planning but need to be on-site beginning mid-June).

Salary: $4,000-$6,000

Send cover letter and resume to:

Denise Crevin
Education Administrator
Congregation B'nai Israel
3600 Riverside Blvd.
Sacramento, CA 95818
dcrevin@bnais.com