Nicole Lynn Lewis

Thank you for your wonderfully engaging and inspirational keynote at our annual Fulfilling the Promise conference on March 16, 2011. Your keynote, The Gloriously Simple Way to Get What You Want, provided our participants with simple and straightforward advice that I am certain they will apply to both their personal and professional lives. As one participant stated, "It takes what seems to be common sense and breaks it down to make it achievable".

During the break after your keynote and throughout the day, numerous conference participants approached me and my staff to thank us for inviting you to the conference and tell us how much they appreciated your keynote. Here are just a few of the comments that our conference participants made on the evaluations:

- 5 simple steps to help me be successful. Was very touching for me. I am also a teen mom myself – have been struggling with school and work as a young mom.
- An amazing and inspirational speaker.
- Engaging speaker – real and not pretentious – had some great ideas for affirming parents who work on goals.
- Excellent speaker who lived her dream. Inspirational.
- Great presentation! Nicole was "real" and came across sincerely.
- Nicole did a great job of setting the tone for the conference while emphasizing motivation and offering tools/strategies to use in work and life.
- One of the best speakers in years!

Likewise, the feedback on your workshop, Helping Teen Parents Thrive, was extremely positive. Participants generally felt the workshop provided them with useful information that they could use to more effectively reach and support teen parents. On the evaluations participants said some of the following:

- She is a great speaker with a wealth of knowledge. I am looking forward to sharing.
- Awesome to get a new "non-clinical" approach to teen parents.
- Very informational and the personal touch of experiences helps.

Once again, I appreciate the time and effort you put into making both your keynote and workshop session so very valuable for our conference attendees. As a conference planner working with many speakers for several conferences I appreciate your attention to detail, your timely communications, and the time you took to really understand our audience. It was a pleasure to work with you.

Sincerely,

Michele Dickinson
