

The Magician's Nephew

by C.S. Lewis

Print Copywork

Quotes from the first book in
The Chronicles of Narnia

Please do not distribute this download. If you mention this on your blog or website, please link back to the original printable at Homegrown Learners.

Feel free to contact me if you have questions:

mary.prather@homegrownlearners.com

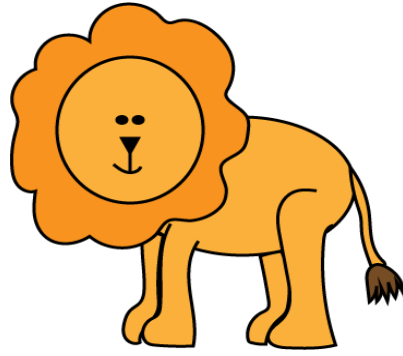

(Graphics purchased from Etsy)

© Homegrown Learners, LLC 2016

No great wisdom can be reached without sacrifice.

Now the trouble about trying to make yourself stupider than you really are is that you very often succeed.

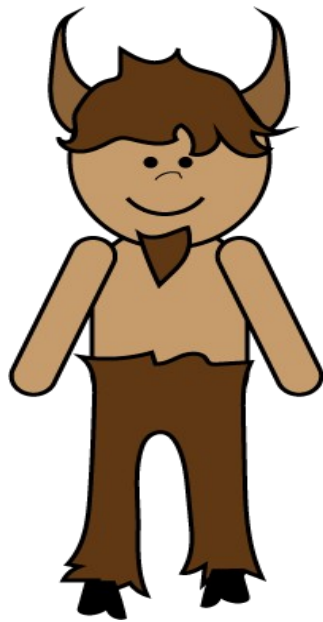

Awake. Love. Think. Speak.
Be walking trees. Be talking beasts. Be divine waters.

All get what they want;
they do not always like it.

Child, that is why all the rest are now a horror to her. That is what happens to those who pluck and eat fruits at the wrong time and in the wrong way. Oh, the fruit is good, but they loath it ever after.

“By gum,” said Digory, “Don't I just wish I was big enough to punch your head!”

Look for the valleys, the green places, and fly through them. There will always be a way through.

But length of days with an evil heart is only length of misery and already she begins to know it. All get what they want; they do not always like it.
