Hi Friends,

Grill Season has officially begun.

Yes, I know, my diehard grillers never shut the grill down. It's a good feeling to see everything come to life outside. I've been looking forward to cooking + eating outdoors, once again.

Here's a griller's recipe I cooked up on LIVE! with Regis & Kelly, with a secret ingredient. Who would have thought that ingredient would be in my sauce?

Let us not forget...

*We cherish too, the Poppy red
That grows on fields where valor led,
It seems to signal to the skies
That blood of heroes never dies.*

- Memorial Day aka. Remembrance Day; In 1915, poem inspired by "In Flanders Fields," by Moina Michael.

Have a safe and happy holiday!
As always - Know YOUR FIRE.
Enjoy, George
