Welcome!

If this is your first visit to the Chapel or one of many, we welcome you to pray with us. You do not have to be Catholic to enjoy the quiet and serenity of this place and we pray that you will come back again and again for the peace that only He can give.

Do, then, bless the house of your servant that it may be before you forever; for you, Lord God, have promised, and by your blessing the house of your servant shall be blessed forever."

2 Samuel 7:29

"Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ."
Feast Day of Saint Jerome
September 30th

Saint Jerome was an Illyrian Latin Christian priest, confessor, theologian and historian, who also became a Doctor of the Church. He was the son of Eusebius, of the city of Stridon, on the border of Dalmatia and Pannonia, born in the mid-4th century. Jerome was a young scholar at Rome.

He later developed a deep interest in asceticism and worked on creating a unified Latin version of the Bible's New Testament. After moving to Bethlehem in 386, he translated sections of the Old Testament from Hebrew into Latin, creating the template for the Roman Catholic Church's Vulgate. September 30th is also the Fr. Jerome Jung's birthday, and we would all like to wish him "Ad Multos Annos!"

"All it takes is one good person to restore hope."
