

About The Beatles Teaching Pack

The Beatles Teaching Pack is an extensive collection of English language teaching resources. It tells the story of the most important group in the history of pop music. You can try these sample materials to see if they are suitable for your classes:

* Penny Lane * Five Fun Facts * The Beatles Starter Quiz * How The Beatles Began

What language level are the materials?

Language Level: Common European Framework CEFR B1-B2

Most resources are broadly in the intermediate range. The Early History materials are largely lower-intermediate, though they will also work well with more advanced learners. There are also extension materials at upper-intermediate (B2) suitable for examinations like Cambridge First Certificate & IELTS.

Age Range

Teens/Young adults & adult learners. The materials are also ideal for use in other courses e.g. music, music technology, cultural studies, modern history

About the Resources

Materials include presentations, worksheets, graded reading & listening activities. They can be used in the classroom, online, for individual self-study, or in a flipped classroom. Most activities come with answers and teaching notes.

1. Presentations (Google Presentations & Powerpoints)

How to use: via classroom presentation or individual computer. The default format is Google Presentation (cloud based/no software required) and you can display directly with an online connection. You can also download Google Docs or Presentations as Powerpoints or PDF. Each presentation is a starting point for learning activities: with linked worksheets etc.

N.B. Video links will need to be restored when converting to Powerpoint.

2. Learning Activity Worksheets (PDFs, Google Docs, Word)

How to use: Reading, writing, listening, speaking & vocabulary activities linked to the themes. They can also be the starting point for projects etc. Reading Worksheets (RWS) are short texts with Quick Check comprehension questions.
