

Charms of Grace

words by Charles Wesley

music by Carl Thomas Gladstone

D A C G
All glory to God in the sky,
F C em A
And peace upon earth be restored!
D A C G
O Jesus, exalted on high,
F C em
Appear our omnipotent Lord:
F# bm
Who meanly in Bethlehem born,
F# bm
Didst stoop to redeem a lost race,
em bm
Once more to thy creature return,
em A
And reign in thy kingdom of grace.

[CHORUS]

D A G A [D A G A]
Appeased by the charms of thy grace
D A G A [D A G A]
We all shall in amity join,
D A G A [D A G A]
And kindly each other embrace,
em G A
And love with a passion like thine.

D A C G
Come then to thy servants again,
F C em A
Who long thy appearing to know,
D A C G
Thy quiet and peaceable reign
F C em
In mercy establish below:
F# bm
All sorrow before thee shall fly,
F# bm
And anger and hatred be o'er,
em bm
And envy and malice shall die,
em A
And discord afflict us no more.

D A C G
O wouldst thou again be made known,
F C em A
Again in thy Spirit descend,
D A C G
And set up in each of thine own,
F C em
A kingdom that never shall end!
F# bm
Thou only art able to bless,
F# bm
And make the glad nations obey,
em bm
And bid the dire enmity cease,
em A
And bow the whole world to thy sway.

[To The End]

F#
No horrid alarm of war
bm
Shall break our eternal repose;
F#
No sound of the trumpet is there,
bm
Where Jesus's Spirit o'erflows
