

LARK'S TONGUE

Narrow

Lark's Tongue transmutes shadows into sound across the dark expanse, sculpting elegiac hymns to dreams just over the horizon. Bound rhythmically to the charge, the band negotiates unspoken truths over a palette of harmony and distortion—its melodies trace the path to understanding.

Hailing from the Midwest, the band's debut full-length, Narrow, is a pilgrimage across the vastness of psychedelic rock to places at once familiar and foreboding, severe and loving, intricate and immense. For Chris Bennett, Jeff Hyde, Nate Lucas, Jon Wright and Andrew Sledd, it's a labor of devotion.

With one 7" and split LPs with Men of Fortune and Across Tundras under its belt, Narrow is the band's first fully-formed missive: a statement of intention, a transmission of catharsis, a halcyon ode to the power of transformation.

RIYL: Swervedriver, Failure, A Place to Bury Strangers, Red Red Meat, Cave In, Black Heart Procession, Deep Purple

2xLP on Bird Dialect. EXALT - 009
Release: September 20, 2014

- 1 Windows and Mirrors
- 2 Hermit's Lament
- 3 The Mask of Evil
- 4 Cold Hands
- 5 Hecate
- 6 Lay Me Down Slow
- 7 Death's In No Hurry
- 8 Brown Recluse

Recorded by Jeff Gregory at ToneLab/Earth Analog
Mixed by Sanford Parker at Hypercube
Mastered by Collin Jordan at The Boiler Room

Also available: Across Tundras split 12" (Cavity), Men of Fortune split 12", The Rope/Tucson, Arizona 7"

Distribution (U.S.): sales@cstdltd.com, (773) 486-1400
Distribution (Europe): info@clearspot.nl, +31 (0)72 567 9990
Press/Interviews: birddialect@gmail.com
More information: birddialect.com

