The Dawn Corry Musicians' Scholarship

The Dawn Corry Musicians' Scholarship is offered by the Lutheran Church of New Zealand to support musicians in Lutheran congregations in New Zealand who want to commit to improving their competence to play music for worship.

The Dawn Corry Musicians' Scholarship honours the memory of the late Dawn Corry who served as an organist/pianist in several congregations, and the Scholarship has been provided by her family.

The Scholarship is offered once a year to provide a grant towards the cost of musical tuition in the following year. The annual scholarship is valued at $1000.

The scholarship will be awarded by the Council of Synod of LCNZ on the recommendation of the Bishop or his nominee, and will be advised by the end of November of each year.

You are invited to apply for this scholarship if you:

- Are a member of a congregation of the Lutheran Church of New Zealand
- Are a current musician playing for worship or a musician planning to play for worship
- Wish to receive further tuition which will improve your musical skills and equip you to play music for worship

To apply for the Scholarship:

- Complete the Application Form;
- Add any extra information that you would like the panel to consider
- Provide two short written references with regard to your musical ability and commitment and your commitment to playing music for worship
- Submit by 31 October of the current year to the Administrator of LCNZ.
