The classes are hosted on a platform called Pathwright.

Go to this link:

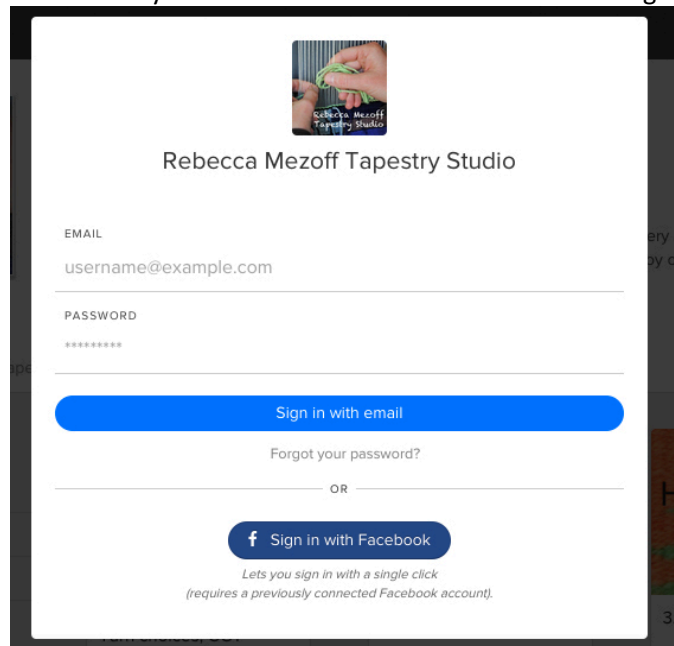

<https://rebeccamezoff.pathwright.com/library/>

(Or you can always click any of the registration buttons on my website—they all go to this page.)

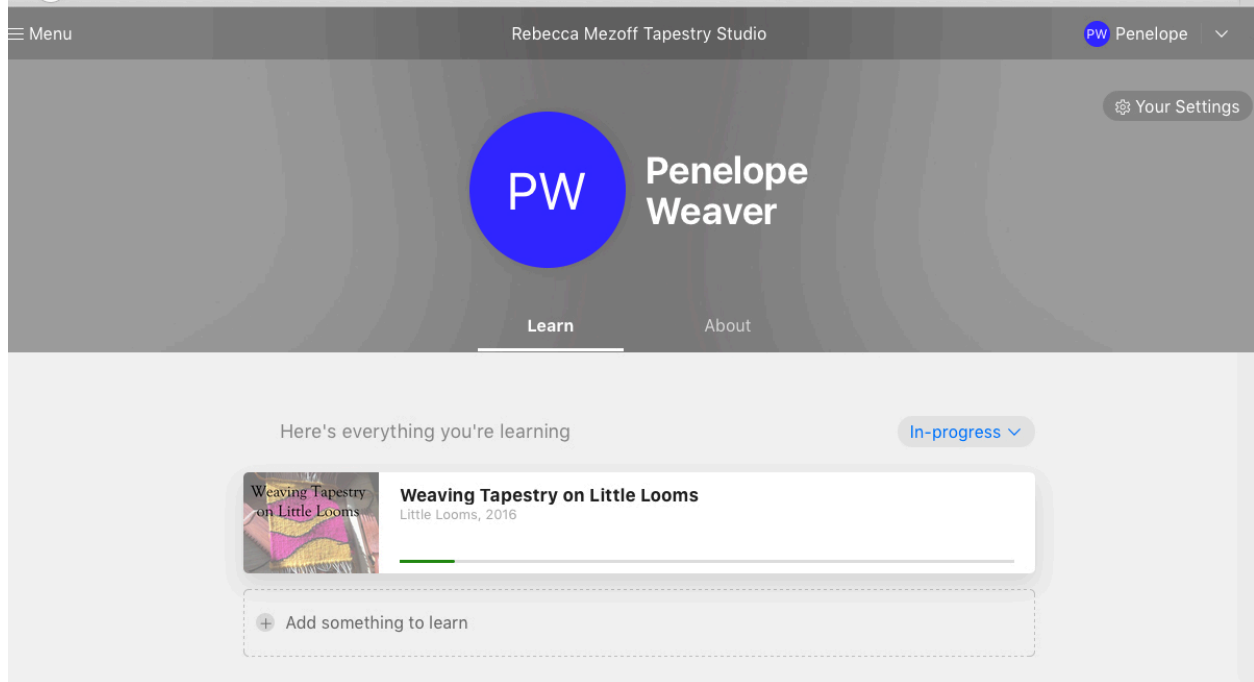

There you'll see a page that looks something like this. The sign in link is in the top right corner.

From there you should see a box that looks something like this:

Once you sign in you'll see a page that looks like this. The courses you are registered for are listed there.

If you want to continue working on one of the courses, click on that course and you'll be taken to the navigation page for that class. If you want to look for other classes to take, click the MENU button on the top left and then go to LIBRARY. The LEARN button in the menu brings you back to the classes you are registered for.

Clicking the course you want to work on brings you to the home navigation page for the course which should look something like this.
