

Health Care Rally

101 KXL FM News

Written by Mike Turner on February 11, 2015

Single Payer health care advocates rally on the steps of the State Capitol Wednesday.

They say even with the Affordable Care Act, health care is too expensive for most Americans. Activists say co-pays and deductibles charged by insurance companies are the reason and they're supporting a single payer bill in the legislature this session.