Film outlines how to overcome powerful elite

To the Editor:

Shouts of “health care for all people” were heard loud and clear at Walden’s town hall meetings in Baker City, Elgin and Wallowa earlier this month.

Many Eastern Oregon residents are concerned about inadequate access to health care, especially if the American Health Care Act (Trump’s “no care” AHCA) passes the Senate. Many would no longer have access to needed health care and prescription medication. With the elites in power, we cannot rely on Congress to act on our behalf.

A new health care documentary film, “Now is the Time,” outlines ways to overcome the grip of the elites on health care. The showing is on June 1 at Cook Memorial Library. Enter on the parking lot side where doors will open at 6 p.m. with the viewing at 6:30 p.m. There is limited seating so come early.

We must overcome apathy with action to ensure everyone has the health care they need, when they need it.
