

2017 Fall Sunday Bible Classes

A Return to Grace – Class led by Pastor Tiefel

This study works with the 2017 Reformation film of the same name. Participants will explore how the Reformation and Martin Luther impacted the world both in 1517 and today, using four excerpts from the film. Discussing and applying what we saw, we will be led to a deeper understanding of this important milestone in Lutheranism. The lessons are:

- Grace Hidden
- Grace Rediscovered
- Grace Defended
- Grace Confessed and Enduring

Family Foundations – Class led by Matt Foley

The “Living Christian Values in the Home” Bible study addresses a variety of life issues that can impact the average home. It will help God’s families to serve the Lord better as we struggle with the challenges that arise in our homes.

Happiness – Class led by Heather Dahlke and others

What is happiness? In this study we will explore ways in which the world defines happiness. We will think through the clues that our words and actions give about our personal beliefs regarding happiness and how we hope to attain it. Please join us as we search God’s Word for what He says about happiness and how to receive it, as well as affirming that true joy begins only as we receive God’s forgiveness for us through Jesus’s blood shed on the cross.

Hymns of Luther – Class led by Pete Krueger

Each class will review the lyrics, tunes and scripture references for 3 or 4 of Luther’s hymns, selected by topic. Weekly hymn topics will be Reformation, Catechism, Liturgy, and Church Year. Stories from the life of Luther and/or excerpts of his conversations and comments will be provided. The purpose of this class is to inspire greater joy in our Lutheran heritage and encourage study of the hymn’s scripture references.

Men of the Outdoors – Class led by Rich Platz

This is a unique course that combines our passion for hunting with our passion for God’s Word. This video class has actual footage from a hunt connected with a lesson from God’s Word. There are two deer hunts, a turkey hunt and an elk hunt. The lessons will deal with the Sovereignty of God, the Brotherhood of Men, God’s Design for Men, and God’s Direction in Psalms 1 & 2.

Classes begin Sunday, September 10 at 9:15 a.m. and run for 4 lessons each ending on October 8. There will be no classes on October 1 for Harvestfest.
