

Le Tableau Magnifique Ballet Company
Summer 2016 – Summer 2017 Season Contract

Company Divisions:

Junior: Dancers ages 7 and up with at least 2 years ballet experience. Dancers must take Level II Workshop Classes over the summer. During the fall season, dancers must take at least 1 ballet class a week.

Apprentice: Dancers ages 10 and up with at least 3 years ballet experience. Dancers must take Level III Intensives over the summer session. During the fall season, dancers must take 2 classes a week.

Senior Division – Intermediate Level: Dancers ages 12 and up with at least 3 years ballet experience. Dancers must take a combination of the Level III Intensives, Intermediate Intensives, Pre-Pointe, Beginning Pointe, and Floor Barre Classes over the summer session. During the fall season, dancers must take at least 2 classes a week, with 3 the preferred amount.

Senior Division - Advanced: Dancers ages 14 and up with at least 5 years ballet experience. Dancers will be placed within the Division as either a Principal, Soloist, Demi-Soloist, or Corps de Ballet dancer. Principal dancers have reached the advanced level at LSOD and are capable of leading a production. They have the necessary technique, stamina, dedication, and stage presence to warrant the title of Principal dancer. During the fall season, they take at least 4 classes a week. Soloists and Demi-Soloists have reached the advanced level at LSOD and are ready to perform solo roles. During the fall season, they take at least 3 classes a week. Corps de Ballet dancers have reached at least the Intermediate Technique Level at LSOD and can perform well and in unison with small and large groups. During the summer session, dancers must take the master classes (with permission from the Director), Two Week Advanced Intensive (with permission from the Director), and any other classes offered at the Intermediate/Advanced Level. For those dancers not yet at this level, they will need to take the Intermediate Intensives, Pointe Technique, and Floor Barre Classes.

Dancers will need to attend 3 weeks of summer session classes and 4 weeks of LTM summer rehearsals in order to participate in the Company. There are 7 weeks of LTM summer rehearsals.

Performance Opportunities:

Participation in the November 2016 production of "The Little Mermaid". The production will be based on the classic story (minus the really tragic portions) written by Hans Christian Andersen. Dress rehearsal: Monday, November 7th; Performances Saturday, November 12th & Sunday, November 13th.

Participation in the July 2017 (Saturday, July 29th) production of "Ballet on the Green" at Shea Stage in front of The Bankhead Theater

Participation in community service projects: Taylor Family Foundation, Heritage Estates (December 2016), Shepherd's Gate, and various Livermore Downtown Events.

Potential Performance: Outdoors at Firehouse Theater in Pleasanton - March 2017

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

Dancers will have the opportunity to participate in a studio photo shoot. There will be a $25 sitting fee for each dancer who wishes to participate. Photo shoot dates: Sunday, July 10th and Sunday, July 17th.

Apprentice and Senior Division dancers will have headshots taken (no additional fee) and will create short biographies to publish in a company playbill. Junior Division dancers will take a group photo and will also create biographies for the playbill.

Film vignettes will again be a part of the company performance with LTM dancer participation.

Dancers can choose to participate in the LTM Secret Pal Game (details are attached).

Commemorative Little Mermaid LTM Company t-shirts will be given to each dancer.

Le Tableau Magnifique Ballet Company Questionnaire and Contract

- Dancers make a commitment to LTM by signing this contract and submitting the annual fee prior to their placement being posted or announced. Dancers who are unhappy with their placement in LTM will not be given a refund if they choose to remove themselves from the Company for this reason.
 - The annual fee covers Company classes and rehearsals scheduled during the summer of 2016 through the end of June 2017. Summer 2017 rehearsals for "Ballet on the Green" are also covered. All costumes, except for one (which will be chosen by the Director), will be purchased by the Director and on loan to the dancers. Dancers also receive commemorative t-shirt and will have a headshot photo taken. Additional expenses for the dancer may include the purchase of a specific body-liner, special tights or shoes, and any tickets needed for theater performances.
 - Dancers may not be a member of another ballet company while under contract with LTM.
 - Space within the Company is limited.

Questionnaire:

What weeks/days will you attend LTM classes/rehearsals this summer?

Are there any conflicts during the fall season (September - November) that will affect your attendance at weekly rehearsals? _____

Do you have any concerns regarding your participation in LTM that the Director should be aware of?

What is your t-shirt size? _____

Director's Note: Dancers will be placed within the Company based on technical and theatrical ability. It is up to the Director's discretion alone as to the proper placement of a dancer within the Company. Many dancers who regularly take class together will not be categorized equally within the Company. For the corps de ballet, choreography will be varied to accommodate the different ability levels of dancers. The Director is available to discuss placement and progress with dancers, but will not discuss these issues/concerns with parents. Please understand that being a part of LTM is a large commitment and requires dedication and respect for the Company, Director, and fellow dancers.

- Shelly Schoendienst, LTM Director and Founder

Le Tableau Magnifique Ballet Company Statement of Intent for the 2016 – 2017 Season

I agree to follow the above rules/guidelines during my season with Le Tableau Magnifique Ballet Company.

I realize that the more summer classes/rehearsals I attend, the more performance opportunity I will be given.

I will treat my fellow Company dancers and the Director with respect and consideration.

I will have tons of fun while performing with LTM!

Le Tableau Magnifique Secret Pal Game

Participating Senior Division dancers will be given a Secret Pal. This Pal may be another Senior Division dancer or an Apprentice. Principal and Soloist dancers will also be given a Junior Division Secret Pal. Apprentices will be given a Secret Pal. Junior Division dancers will not be given a Pal; they will just be on the receiving end of the game.

All participating dancers will need to complete the below questionnaire and return it to the Director as soon as possible. These questionnaires will be used to prepare goodies for Pals, ensuring that preferences and allergies are taken into consideration. If the questionnaire is not turned in, dancers will not receive any goodies. Once the questionnaire is completed and passed off to the Pal, they can start giving goodies.

There will be rules to follow this year for participating dancers:

- The game will start on Monday, July 25th with the start of the new season.
- Goodies given to Pals should be inexpensive (less than $10) and do not have to be purchased gifts. Examples include: a drawing, letter, or poem, a bouquet of flowers from your garden, an edible treat, or a burned music CD. The Dollar Tree is also a great place to find fun items.
- Dancers need to give at least 2 goodies and no more than 4 goodies to their Pal each month.
- The game will end near the end of the season with a Secret Pal Reveal Game.
