The Corporation may have such other offices, either within or without the State of Wyoming, as the Board of Directors of the Corporation ("Board") may deem advisable from time to time.

1.2 Registered Office. The Corporation shall maintain a registered office in the State of Wyoming as required by Wyoming law. The registered office may be, but need not be identical with the principal office in the State of Wyoming. The address of the registered office may be changed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 2

No Capital Shares

2.1 No Capital Shares. The Corporation shall have no capital shares or shareholders, and its business and affairs shall not be conducted for private pecuniary gain or profit, nor shall any of the Corporation's gain, profit or property inure to the incorporators thereof, nor officer or director thereof, except as otherwise provided in ~~Section (2)(a) of~~ ~~ARTICLE XIX~~ of the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation ("Articles") with respect to compensation for services rendered, but the Corporation's entire gain, profit, net earnings and property shall be devoted exclusively to the charitable and other uses and purposes set out in ~~ARTICLE VII~~ of the Articles.

ARTICLE 3

No Members

3.1 Number of Members. There shall be no Members of the Corporation.

ARTICLE 4

Directors

4.1 General Powers. All corporate power shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of, the Board, subject to any limitations set forth in the Articles.

4.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than three (3) individuals and not more than seven (7) individuals, and unless otherwise changed by a resolution of the Board, shall consist of four individuals. Each director shall be elected by the Board. Each director shall hold office for such term as shall be determined at the time of such director's election or until such director's successor shall be elected and qualified, whichever period is longer. The directors need not be residents of the State of Wyoming. Each director shall be eligible for reelection. Except for designated or appointed directors, the terms of directors shall not exceed five (5) years.

4.3 Removal and Resignations. At a meeting of the Board called expressly for that purpose, any director or the entire Board may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of a majority of directors then entitled to vote at an election of directors. Any member of the Board may resign from the Board at any time by giving written notice to the Board. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

4.4 Annual and Regular Meetings. An annual meeting of the Board shall be held at such time and place as the Chairman of the Board may direct upon at least ten days' prior notice in writing, given personally, by mail or fax, to all of the directors of the Corporation for the purpose of electing officers and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. The Board may provide by resolution the time and place, either within or without the State of Wyoming, for the holding of regular meetings without other notice than such resolution.

4.5 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the President or any two directors of the Corporation. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office of the Corporation or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

4.6 Participation in Meetings. Unless otherwise provided by Wyoming law, the Board may permit any or all directors to participate in an annual, regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting including, but not limited to, conference telephone or similar communications equipment. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

4.7 Notice of Meeting. Notice of the date, time and place of any special meeting shall be given at least two days prior thereto by written notice mailed, faxed or delivered personally to each director at the director's business address. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope so addressed, with postage prepaid. If notice be given by fax, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when receipt of the fax is confirmed by return fax or other writing by the intended recipient. Unless otherwise provided in these Bylaws or Wyoming law, the notice shall not be required to describe the purpose of the special meeting.

4.8 Waiver of Notice. A director may waive any notice required by the Articles, these Bylaws or Wyoming law before or after the date and time stated in the notice. The waiver shall be in writing, signed by the director entitled to the notice, and filed with the minutes or corporate records. A director's attendance at or participation in a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, unless the director at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director's arrival, objects to the holding of the meeting or transacting business at the meeting because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

4.9 Quorum and Voting. Unless the Articles require a greater or lesser number, a majority of the number of directors fixed by these Bylaws shall constitute a quorum of the Board; provided, however, that if less than a majority of the directors are present at said meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

4.10 Manner of Acting. The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board, unless otherwise required by the Articles or these Bylaws.

4.11 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, such vacancy shall be filled by the affirmative vote of the majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum of the Board. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of such director's predecessor in office.

4.12 Compensation of Directors. Unless the Articles provide otherwise, the Board may fix the compensation of directors. No such compensation shall preclude any director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving reasonable compensation therefor.

4.13 Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board at a meeting may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the directors.

4.14 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members Chairman of the Board. The Chairman of the Board shall preside at all meetings of the Board. Section 5.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the directors' meetings and for authenticating records of the Corporation. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Corporation such responsibility.

5.2 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Corporation shall be elected by the Board at the first, and thereafter at each annual, meeting of the Board. If the appointment of officers shall not be made at any such meeting, such appointment shall be made as soon thereafter as is practicable. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly elected or until such officer's death or until such officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

5.3 Removal and Resignations of Officers. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause. An officer of the Corporation may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board. 5.4 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Corporation. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Corporation's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

5.5 Vacancies. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or otherwise may be filled by the Board for the unexpired portion of the term.

5.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman of the Board, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Corporation and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Corporation, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman of the Board shall preside at all meetings of the Board.

The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Corporation to attend, act and vote at any meeting of members or shareholders of any corporation in which the Corporation may hold membership or stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to membership or the ownership of such stock which the Corporation, as member or owner, would have had and exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

5.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. A Vice President shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman of the Board, the President or the Board.

5.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall (a) have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Corporation, (b) receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.4 and (c) in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to the Treasurer by the Chairman of the Board, President or the Board.
