10th July 2016 - FIFTEENTH SUNDAY - Year C

'Stay with us Lord on our Journey'

You can usually see Pat with a can of beer in his hand on the bench outside the off licence. The smell's not very nice and he could do with a change of clothes. Not that he would buy any himself since most of his benefits go on drink. He's not originally from round here; he seems to have appeared a few years ago, lives in a flat on the main road and has no family that anyone knows of.

Everyone at our church knows Rita. She turns up for everything and has joined almost every group going. She's a pleasant enough soul, very willing. This is probably due to her living alone. She does have some family somewhere but they rarely see each other.

Akim and Kwame live in Abuja. They're thirteen and eleven years old and have to look after each other now that both their parents have died from AIDS. They don't complain, since many of their friends are in the same situation. It seems that there are more people in their village with AIDS than there are without it. Their patchy health service does its best but the problem is so vast.

Life couldn't be different for the gang of kids who hang around our local chip shop at nights. Left to their own devices by their parents, they make a lot of noise and can seem a bit intimidating to older people. In fact, they're harmless enough apart from the occasional broken bench and the hoard of litter they create.

And so the list goes on at home and abroad. Lupita and Toni are grandparents who work in a sweatshop on the outskirts of Manila...Louise lives in our estate and longs for her husband to be out of prison...Magodonga lives near Harare and wants nothing more than a decent education...Craig has all the advantages of Los Angeles but doesn't know it because he spends most of his time on drugs...Near or far, who is my neighbour?
