May 15, 2014 Mrs. Taube & Mrs. Garn

Bow-wow...woW...wOW!!! Pet Week was packed with PETS! The children shared what it takes to care for a pet! They need food and water and lots of love! Having a pet is a big responsibility. The class loved the story Move Over, Rover! By Karen Beaumont and Shampoodle by Joan Holub. We created cue cards and friends took turns giving out commands...Meow! RUFF! The children painted the letter Yy using YARN! Our Yy story, The Yak Who Yelled Yuck, taught the class a valuable lesson! Before yelling yuck, have a taste...your yuck may be turned into a YUM! Yahoo! Have you ever TRIED yams or yellow yogurt? The class added 10 STARS to their Number Bags! Well Done! In Religion, the class carefully cut round and round and round! Then, they colored round, and round and round! We thank God for the ability to learn! We are constantly learning and discovering new things in Preschool! We can learn many important things from Jesus, the Teacher!

Woof! Tweet,tweet! Cluck! Pet Week was loaded with a wide variety of four to two legged companions!

Wet day fun! Weather permitting! Please provide a dry change of clothes!

SPECIAL THANKS
Thank you to all our animal friends that visited the classroom this week! Fireball was cool! Cooper, Sage and Mocha were so friendly! Turani's music was beautiful! Max and Dancer were out of sight! Princess 1 and Princess 2 were very well behaved!
BRAVO, PET FRIENDS!

Thank you to ALL that have ordered from Scholastic Reading Club this year! Wow! We are a class that LOVES books! The Preschool Library has benefited from all your orders! We received free books each month!

It is fun to meet new friends!

What Belongs? The Pet Shop is OPEN for business!
The class also charted the different pets that visited this week!
