

AT at the Prime Sports Institute

Want to work in one of the first private practice Athletic Training clinics in the country?

Prime Massage and Sports Medicine was founded by Kerry Gustafson, LAT, ATC, LMT, 6 years ago in Bellingham, Washington, and is now expanding into the Prime Sports Institute to include other practitioners and sports performance.

Our primary clients are professional, elite, and recreational multi-sport, mountain bikers, triathlete, and water-sport athletes. Bellingham appeals to the person who loves to be playing outdoors, rain or shine. We often remark that "we are so lucky to live here!"

You will work as a clinical athletic trainer as well as a strength and conditioning coach. I want you to play hard in your off hours and be ready every day to excel in a competitive, energetic, and supportive environment.

Prime Sports Institute's Core Values are: Excellence, Community, Communication, Growth, Integrity, and Quality of Life. I have built this business by overdelivering quality athletic training sessions that the Bellingham community trusts and expects. Now I need help. Patient care should be about the patient. Not about seeing as many people as we can in a day.

EXPECTATIONS

Hours vary based on time of year and could include a variety of times including Saturdays, early morning, and evening hours. At times during the sports seasons we will be open until as late as 9:30 PM.

This is a full-time position. If you have any scheduling restrictions, please disclose them at the time you submit your application.

- Manage daily operations of the Training Room
- Oversee flow of all patients as scheduled
- Perform injury and performance screens
- Provide patient care, treatment, and service in a continuous and coordinated manner under the direction of the referring physician.
- The performance of educational responsibilities specific to the needs of each individual patient. This includes but is not limited to: exercise instruction, answering patient questions regarding treatment plans, rehabilitation options, and insurance inquiries.
- Participate in on-going education, including in-services, training, and other activities, to maintain and improve individual competence.

- Review recovery equipment operation. Instruct/educate patients and clients on proper use and care.
- Perform outreach and marketing services to local gyms, running clubs and fitness studios.
- Proper knowledge of common self myofascial release, mobility, dynamic warm up, exercise progressions/regressions, and training techniques
- CSCS with experience leading small group/semi-private strength and conditioning program
- Strong desire to advance your skills
- Eagerness and open-mindedness in learning the Prime System
- Good people skills, communication skills, and professional presentation to allow interactions with clients, parents, coaches, and other Prime team members
- Uphold all of the Prime Core Values at all times: Excellence, Community, Communication, Growth, Integrity, and Quality of Life

Minimum Qualifications

- Washington State Licensure
- Bachelor's degree required, Master's degree preferred (in Athletic Training, from a CAATE accredited institution)
- Board Certified through Board of Certification for the Athletic Trainer (BOCATC), maintained with respect to CEUs
- First Aid/CPR certification
- All necessary licensure and certifications must be up to date prior to starting.

Preferred Qualifications and Experience

- 3-5 years athletic training experience
- 1-2 years of experience working in an Orthopedic, Chiropractic, Physical Therapy or other clinic
- NASM, CFSC certification or similar preferred but not mandatory
- Exercise-related college degree preferred but not mandatory

Application Process

Please follow the below step by step instructions prior to applying or we may not consider your application:

Step 1) Film a brief ~3 minute video of yourself. Explain why you want to work at the Prime Sports Institute and why we should consider hiring you to be on our team.

Step 2) Upload the video to Youtube and set the restrictions to view as "unlisted."

Step 3) Download the application and fill out completely.

Step 4) Send an email to kerry@primebellingham.com. The subject of your email should be "Athletic Trainer Application." Use the body of the email as a brief cover letter and be sure to include the private link to view your application video. Attach the application and a resume that includes at least 3 professional references.