UP Worker Killed in Early Morning Accident

Posted: Jan 28, 2009 1:42 PM CST
Updated: Feb 03, 2009 1:47 PM CST

COUNCIL BLUFFS (KPTM) - A Union Pacific worker was killed Wednesday morning in Council Bluffs at a UP railyard.

Police say 41-year-old Craig C. Lang of Neola, Iowa was killed at about 6am when a passing train struck him while he worked on another train.

Police were called to the scene, where they determined Lang was dead.

Police say the investigation will continue pending autopsy results.

A UP spokesman says Lang was employed as a switchman.