
Dustin Price "Dusty" Moles

Funeral will be at 2 p.m. today at Morgan Funeral Chapel for Dustin Price "Dusty" Moles, 33, Southside, who died Wednesday, June 24, 2009. Bro. Chris Ragan will officiate. Burial will be in Rainbow Memorial Gardens. Morgan Funeral Chapel and Crematory directing. Dusty graduated from Glencoe High School in 1994. He loved to deer hunt and could put a smile on anyone's face. He was a deputy sheriff/investigator for eight years and had a passion for his work. Dusty was a loving, devoted husband and father and was very devoted to his entire family. He was preceded in death by his grandmothers, Anne P. Stokes and Cora Tilley; and great-grandmothers, Inez B. Phillips and Icie M. Moles. He is survived by his wife, Cassie Moles; daughters, Taylor and Skylar Moles; parents, Bobby (Gail) Moles; brother, Shane (Shannon) Moles; mother and father-in-law, Freddie (Cathy) Sitz Jr.; brothers and sisters-in-law, Melissa (Jason) Amberson, Ray (Beth) Sitz, Tyler Sitz and Lindsey Sitz; uncles and aunts, Randy (Linda) Stokes and Robert (Joan) Tilley; numerous other aunts and uncles; nieces and nephews, Jaden, Jacob, Madalyn Amberson, Zoe and Hunter Sitz, Randi and McKinsey Moles; and great-aunt, Patricia Schomp. Pallbearers are Shane Moles, Ray Sitz, Tyler Sitz, Jason Amberson, Kenneth "Scoupe" Nesmith, Chris Patterson, Barry Grantham, Tim Goffe, Jarrett McPherson and Brent Bunton. Honorary pallbearers are Bobby Moles, Freddie Sitz Jr., Tony Deerman, Todd Hill, Darren Jarrells, Scott Petty and all ATN employees and the employees of the Calhoun County Sheriff's Department.

Published in The Gadsden Times from June 26 to June 27, 2009
