

http://www.evoyfuneralhome.com/tribute/details/1680/David_J_Gairo/obituary.html#tribute-start

Obituary of David Gairo

David J. Gairo, age 71, of N Cape May passed away suddenly on Friday, November 27, 2015. David was born December 15, 1943 in Philadelphia, PA. He graduated from Cardinal Dougherty High School in Philadelphia and served in the US Marine Corp Reserves. David is a Past President of the East Penn Traction Club (EPTC) and current President of the Electric City Trolley Museum Association (ECTMA) having served over 20 years in this capacity. He was retired after 30 years with Unisys, Blue Bell, PA where he had been a Systems Analyst. He is survived by his beloved wife of 49 years, Ann (Pomposello) Gairo; two sons, Anthony and Neil Gairo; a sister Karen Mc Glynn; a brother John Seagrave; a step-brother Ryan Seagrave and a step-sister, Jamie Seagrave. David was preceded in death by his mother and step-father Anthony and Evelyn Seagrave and a sister Kathleen Carlin. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held 11:00 am on Saturday, December 5 at St. John Neumann Parish/ St. John Of God Church, 680 Townbank Road, N Cape May, NJ where relatives and friends will be received from 10 to 11 am. Burial will follow at Cold Spring Cemetery. Contributions in his name can be made to the American Cancer Society, 1851 Old Cuthbert Blvd., Cherry Hill, NJ 08034. Condolences will be received at www.evoyfuneralhome.com

http://www.capemaycountyherald.com/news/article_7277ba96-99f3-11e5-990f-c37b8afb0a01.html

Posted: Thursday, December 3, 2015 2:24 pm | Updated: 3:07 pm, Thu Dec 3, 2015.

Other News Source

TUCKAHOE - An employee of Cape May Seashore Lines who fell from a locomotive at the Tuckahoe Train Station Nov. 27 succumbed to his injuries later that day, according to a report in The Press of Atlantic City.

David J. Gairo, 71, of North Cape May, was working on the locomotive when he fell about 10 feet and struck his head. He was flown to AtlantiCare Regional Medical Center, City Division, where he later died, the report said.

Woodbine State Police told The Press of Atlantic City they had wrapped up the investigation, concluding it was an accident.

Gairo was born in Philadelphia, Pa., and served in the U.S. Marine Corp Reserves, according to his obituary. He had been president of the East Penn Trolley Association.

He worked for Unisys in Blue Bell, Pa., for 30 years as a systems analyst.

He is predeceased by his mother and step-father Anthony and Evelyn Seagrave, and sister Kathleen Carlin.

Gairo is survived by his family including his wife of 49 years, Ann Gairo (nee Pomposello), two sons, Anthony and Neil Gairo, sister Karen McGlynn, brother John Seagrave, step-brother Ryan Seagrave and step-sister, Jamie Seagrave.

Funeral services are scheduled for Dec. 5 at 10 a.m. in St. John Of God Church, Townbank Road.