SPARTA, Wis. (WKBT) - A railroad employee died from his injuries Tuesday morning in an accident with a train at Cedar Creek Lumber.

According to Sparta police, train conductor Robert Hemling, 39 of Randolph, was found unresponsive and taken to Mayo Clinic - Sparta Campus, where he was pronounced dead.

The incident is under investigation.

Assisting the Sparta Police Department was Sparta Ambulance, Monroe County Medical Examiner's Office, CP Railroad Police, Monroe County Communications Center and the Village of Randolph Police Department.