Walter Briggs
26 Oct 1890 - 20 Sep 1917 (age 26)
Philadelphia, PA
Youngest son of Joseph Briggs and Lydia Wheatley Hall Briggs (both from England).

Walter Briggs’ World War 1 draft registration card (dated June 5, 1917) shows that Walter was a Brakeman for the B&O Railroad.

Pennsylvania, Death Certificates, 1906-1963 - 103066, Registered No. 23410: Death Certificate cause of death: "Toxemia foll Gen Injuries accdly recd by being crushed between cars of B and O RR at Race St Yard".

Walter was married to Catherine M (Sloan) Briggs and had two young children (James 1 years old, and Walter 3 year old), at the time of his death.