GUIDED LEARNING AGREEMENT

All course participants must sign the following prior to the start of the course in order to participate or attend. I understand that this course may bring up issues of a highly personal nature that may cause me to experience emotional or physical responses that may be unexpected and/or unpleasant. Further, I understand that I may experience mental, emotional, physical, or spiritual distress and that such distress may cause unpleasant feelings. What is experienced in this demonstration course may create physical responses on my part or on the part of other participants. I understand that there is the risk of accident, injury, and emotional distress. I agree to assume this risk, including but not limited to the types of responses described. I confirm that I do not suffer from any mental or physical impairment, and have not been diagnosed at any point with a disorder, condition, or injury, either physical or mental, that might make it inadvisable for me to assume such risks.

This course is not designed as a substitute for psychotherapy or as a substitute for any other form of professional consultation. The course is designed as an educational venue only.

By signing below, I willingly agree to the preceding statements and to hold harmless from all liability, the facilitator, the organizers, and all participants and observers attending this course, and I acknowledge that I have read and consented to the policies described below.

I understand that I may leave the course at any time for any reason.

POLICIES:

REFUNDS. If withdrawn by Sept 5, you will receive your payment less a $100 administrative fee; by Nov 14, less $100 fee and $300 per weekend met; after Nov 14, no refund.

ABSENCES. For the sake of the community experience and the continuity of your own experience, we expect each student to make the best effort to attend all meetings of the Guided Learning. One missed weekend may be made up via notes and discussion session. Two or more missed weekends will result in no Certificate of Completion.

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION. A Certificate of Completion is awarded after fulfilling 112 hours of study and indicates that the student has been exposed to a range of writings, to the foundations and limits of the work, to the place of the work in relation to other approaches, and to relevant critiques and contributions from other fields. A Certificate of Completion from the Bert Hellinger Institute, USA is not a recommendation or endorsement of the student's practice, nor a sign of accountability on the part of the Bert Hellinger Institute, USA for the student's work; it is a marker of exposure, rather than aptitude.
