JUNGLE BUNGLE LYRICS

IT'S A JUNGLE OUT THERE

OLIVER: It might look like a school yard to you
But it's a jungle out there, it's a jungle out there
You all might know the right thing to do
But I need to beware of that jungle out there.
You see that big kid over there, he acts just like a lion
And all the other boys around are spending their time tryin'
To hang out in his lair
It's a jungle out there.

OLIVER: Hello, I'm O... I'm Oliv....Never mind...

I feel like I've been dropped in a zoo
But no-one seems to care that it's a jungle out there
I wonder how I'm gonna get through
I just don't have a prayer in that jungle out there
That pack of girls I'm sure will soon be laughing like hyenas
And I don't have a fence or wall that I can put between us
To protect me from the stares
It's a jungle out there

It's because I've seen it all before that I feel like this now
I have been the new kid many times who just does not know how
To avoid the dangers that await the minute you walk through the gate
Of a new school where it is integrate or beware
Of the jungle out there.
So I'll just have to prepare
For the jungle out there.

THAT LOOK

CLAIRE: What did he mean when he said that I gave him that look?
I don't know why he would say that I'd only just met him
Why he would think and why did I let him?
Why did he go after saying I gave him that look?
Did I just hurt him in some way I never intended at all

OLIVER: Every new place I go people will give me that look
I guess that I'm a bit strange so I come to expect it
And when I arrive they know where to direct it
Maybe I should just ignore it when they give that look
They don't know how much they're saying when they're saying nothing at all

Don't be so sensitive I'm often told
By those who don't know how it feels
To be always the new one, always on the outside
It's amazing what one look reveals.

CLAIRE: I always used to think I am the one
Who likes to be everyone's friend
But if I'm pretending the message I'm sending
Is 'this way leads to a dead end.'

TOGETHER: And maybe this time
I should think twice about what's going on with that look
I hope that when it is seen that it might be mistaken
Sometimes a second glance may just awaken
The feeling that there's something else going on with that look
Perhaps there might be the chance that it simply is misunderstood. (BELL RINGS)

LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP

CLAIRE: My mother she told me since I was just a young girl
You need to be careful, be prepared, don't talk to strangers
And listen to the voice that speaks up inside your head as It's there to alert you to, keep you out of trouble
But here I am about to go out on some strange adventure
With a boy a hardly know and I can hear my mama saying
It's best to look before you leap

OLIVER: Are you saying you don't want to play the game

CLAIRE: It's best to think before you jump right in

OLIVER: You can watch but it really is not the same

CLAIRE: It's best to look before you leap

OLIVER: Are you frightened you may get lost or that you'll find yourself

CLAIRE: It's best to think before you end up

TOGETHER: somewhere you don't want to be

OLIVER: Although I am often the one who's always frightened
I find that I always seem to run towards a problem
It's not that I like it, but somehow at the same time
It's kind of exciting going on adventures
And though the going can get tough, that's when the tough get going
And being scared is not enough to hold me back and out of trouble
I never look before I leap

CLAIRE: Don't you know you get burned when you play with fire

OLIVER: I never think before I jump right in

CLAIRE: Common sense is something that you require

OLIVER: I never look before I leap

CLAIRE: I should follow my own advice or I'll soon find myself

OLIVER: I never think and often end up

TOGETHER: Somewhere I don't want to be.

OLIVER: Why is it that I can hear the sound of distant drumming
It's getting darker and I think that I hear someone coming.

CLAIRE: Woah your garden is much bigger than it looks. Who would have thought that the trees and plants were so thick.

OLIVER: Welcome to the jungle.

CLAIRE: Yeah right.

OLIVER: Hey what's that noise I can hear?

CLAIRE: What noise?

OLIVER: It sounds like something following us.

CLAIRE: Don't play silly tricks Ollie.

OLIVER: I'm not playing tricks. Anything can happen in the jungle.

CLAIRE: But we're not in the jungle. We're in your back garden.

OLIVER: Are we?

CLAIRE: It's best to look before you leap

OLIVER: I never look before I leap

CLAIRE: It's best to think before you jump right in

OLIVER: I never think before I jump

CLAIRE: It's best to look before you leap

OLIVER: Should have listened and now here we are in

CLAIRE: I should have thought but now it seems we're

TOGETHER: somewhere we don't want to be

SAFARI

OLIVER: Safari – ay safari – o. Safari – ay safari – o
Safari – ay safari - o. Safari – ay safari – o.

Come on now it's time for adventure
Go to a place where nobody sent ya

This is the place where the wild things are
Believe in yourselves and you can go far
Hey, and did I mention
This is a song to get Claire's attention

You're up on your feet so you can join in Get ready.... let the fun begin
Safari – ay safari – o. Safari – ay safari – o
Safari – ay safari - o. Safari – ay safari – o.

Now you are up and I have your attention
Just ignore it if you feel apprehension

Join in with the moves, make yourselves proud
This is our rumpus, sing it out loud
Safari – ay safari – o. Safari – ay safari – o
Safari – ay safari - o. Safari – ay safari – o.

Now we're nearly at the end
One more time, to find my friend
Shout it out, let your voices soar
We are the lions, hear us roar
Safari – ay safari – o. Safari – ay safari – o
Safari – ay safari - o. Safari – ay safari – o.
Safari – ay safari – o. Safari – ay safari – o
Safari – ay safari - o. Safari – ay safari – o.

LIFE IS CRAZY

DANNY: Just look around you
It will astound you
How things will rarely go the way that we planned
It's fine unless you
Let it all stress you
So there is one thing that you must understand
Woah – o – o life is crazy
Woah – o – o life is crazy

If you are tired but want to feel fresh as a daisy
Just throw your head back and laugh out loud coz life is crazy
It's only boring if you just sit there being lazy
It's like a party and you're invited. Life is crazy
Woah – o – o life is crazy
Woah – o – o life is crazy

CLAIRE: When I'm in trouble or something startles or delays me
I won't be bothered because it's clear that life is crazy
My path is clear now where once my view was dim and hazy
Whatever happens, enjoy yourself coz life is crazy
Woah – o – o life is crazy
Woah – o – o life is crazy

TOGETHER: So don't be frightened
Just be enlightened
If you're in trouble or you can't find your way
It's not a rumour
Your sense of humour
Is there to help you at the end of the day
And life is crazy – yeah!
Break it down now.

REMARKABLE

SUNDAY: Have you noticed how everywhere
People want to just stop and stare
Watching how others say and do
Things that they always wanted to
Don't be dismayed if you're the one
That others point at for their own fun
Because I bet that if they had the chance
They'd be remarkable

Can you imagine if every day
Things all went in the same old way
You would soon wish that life could change
You'd be looking for something strange
For someone who was different from
The boring person you'd become
For someone who could show you how to be
A bit remarkable.

So don't feel sorry for Yourself any more
Go out there and explore
What it's like to be remarkable.
I'm so remarkable
I love remarkable
Give them remarkable.

Please note: This song was previously called "Unusual". The lyrics here are the most up to date and reflect the live performance; they don't match the recorded version of the track (as this was recorded before the show went into rehearsal).

THE COMPASS

OLIVER: No need to worry 'bout where you are headed
No need to fret about how far you roam
No need to think that the way is forgotten
The compass that points to the heart is pointing to home

CLAIRE: So don't be frightened of things that you can't see
Don't be afraid when you feel you're alone
Remember that when you think you've been abandoned
The compass that points to the heart is pointed to home

TOGETHER: No need to be sad about a goodbye
It often leads to hello
Just follow the compass that points to the heart
It's sure to take you somewhere you know
No need to think when you've had an adventure
That once it is ended you've nowhere to go
I'll always be here to travel beside you
The compass that points to the heart is pointed to home
