

Algoma Bird Celebration

www.birdcityalgoma.com/

www.opendoorbirdsanctuary.org/

International Migratory Bird Day

Algoma Youth Club

620 Lake Street, Algoma, WI

Saturday, April 9, 2016

Doors open at 9:30 a.m.

9:30 a.m.—2:00 p.m.— Vendors and Informational Booths

10:00 a.m.—Getting the Picture: Song Birds ...Shore Birds ...Waterfowl ...

By Local Photographer Robert Kuhn

11:00 a.m.— Meet a LIVE Vulture! Jillaine Burton and Rob Hults from Open Door Bird Sanctuary will present: “Fascinating Flights: Who Migrates and Why” an interactive program using live birds. Kid Friendly!

12:00 p.m.—Lunch Break: Support the Algoma Music Department Fundraiser Food, Beverages, and Algoma Wolves Apparel

12:45 p.m.—Bird Bistros: Plant a Bird-Friendly Feast in your yard and be part of a community-wide effort! A ‘Why’ and ‘How To’ discussion with Kim Grveles, Avian Ecologist, along with Mary Goodner and Cathy Pabich, ‘birdscape’ gardeners.