

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Rhythm X Inc. To Produce Dayton Dragons Drumline

DAYTON, Ohio (January 2, 2015) - Today Rhythm X, Inc. and Dayton Dragons Baseball announced an exciting partnership. During the 2015 season, Rhythm X, Inc. will operate and produce the Dayton Dragons Drumline, a youth performance ensemble started in 2014 by Zac Jansheski of Dayton, OH. This program for local students 19 and younger is a unique performance opportunity rooted in the fundamentals of percussion performance.

In order to continue the educational experience started in the group's inaugural year by Mr. Jansheski, Rhythm X, Inc. has hired him to continue his work as the ensemble's director. He is an experienced instructor and performer, having performed in Rhythm X from 2011-2013, as well as the world-renowned Carolina Crown Drum and Bugle Corps. He is a graduate of Miami University, earning his Bachelor's Degree in Music Education in 2012. Zac currently teaches percussion in the Kettering City Schools and performs in the Cincinnati Bengals "Growl" Drumline. His extensive background as a performer and instructor make him a highly qualified addition to the team.

"We're excited to partner with an innovative and forwarding thinking organization such as the Dayton Dragons. We can't wait to bring Rhythm X's spirit to Fifth Third Field," said Rhythm X, Inc.'s President Tim Fairbanks. He continued, "This will be an outstanding experience for local percussionists."

On February 22nd, The X Academy – the educational wing of Rhythm X, Inc. – will host The Dayton Dragons Audition Clinics from 10AM- 6PM at Fifth Third Field, in Dayton, OH. This clinic will give students access to the groundbreaking clinic method of The X Academy. Students will learn from the educational team in a rehearsal-like environment. A digital download of the audition packet will be provided with registration. Students can register for the audition clinics at rhythmx.org/daytondragons. "Expanding our educational reach to students of all ages and ability levels is the primary goal of The X Academy. We're really excited to have the opportunity to provide this experience so close to home with the youth of the Dayton area," said CEO Mike Scott.
