

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rhythm X, Inc. Partners With Cincinnati Bengals to Operate The Growl

CINCINNATI, Ohio (September 14, 2015) — Today Rhythm X, Inc. and the Cincinnati Bengals announce a partnership that brings operational control of The Growl - the official drumline of the Cincinnati Bengals - to Rhythm X, Inc. Rhythm X is a non-profit performing arts organization that operates five performing ensembles in Southwest Ohio and Europe including The Growl.

“We are particularly excited about this partnership because we call Southwest Ohio home,” said Mike Scott, chief executive officer of Rhythm X, Inc. “We’re excited to extend our expertise to our hometown team the Bengals, and look forward to the ensemble’s continual development.”

The Growl makes its 2015-16 debut at the Cincinnati Bengals home game this Sunday at Paul Brown Stadium.

About Rhythm X, Inc.

Rhythm X, Inc. is a non-profit performing arts education organization from Dayton, OH. The company operates three competitive performance ensembles in the US and Europe as well as The Growl - the official drumline of the Cincinnati Bengals, and The Dragons Drumline - the official drumline of the Dayton Dragons minor league baseball team. In addition to its performing ensembles, Rhythm X, Inc. operates The X Academy, a world-renowned educational series that hosts educational clinics, presentations, and online media. Rhythm X Productions is a commercial performance brand operated by the organization that produces and performs custom performance for various corporate and private events.

Contact

Rhythm X, Inc.
ATTN: Press
2626 Falling Water Dr., Dayton, OH 45459
press@rhythmx.org
(916) 741-DRUM

